

ing Events

MRS. JACOBS

assisted by
PUGMIRE AND STAFF.
PT. MANTON,

will conduct
SOUL-SAVING CAMPAIGN
at Thurs., Feb. 13th, to Fri., Feb. 24th.

Hot Revivalists,

PUGMIRE AND STAFF.

PT. MANTON

ed., Jan. 29, to Mon.

at, March 1, to Mon.

itual Specials.

MAJOR GALT

arrive, Friday, February

Feb. 17; Burlington, to Wed., Feb. 26; Ft.

Fri., Feb. 28, to Mon.

Burditt and Captain

Trickey,

eralde, Sat. Feb. 8, to Heepeler, Thurs., Feb.

March 4.

Ontario Province.

PICKERING

Ingwood, Feb. 8, 9, 10;

Feb. 11; Meaford, Feb. 12.

und, Feb. 15, 16, 17;

20; Barrie, Feb. 21;

ch 1, 2, 3.

BELL RINGERS

Ingwood, Feb. 8, 9, 10;

b. 11; Meaford, Feb. 12.

und, Feb. 15, 16, 17.

Ontario Province.

NTARIO SOUL-SAVING

TROUPE

ham, Jan. 31 to Feb. 10;

11 to Feb. 20; Wallace-to March 3; Petrolia, arch 13; Sarnia, March

1; Strathroy, March 23

ic Province.

R HARGRAVE

b. 7, 8, 9, 10; Vic-

12; Nannimo, Feb. 13.

ster, Feb. 14; Now

15, 16, 17, 18, 19;

Feb. 20; Everett, Feb.

hough, Feb. 24.

West Province.

IER SOUTHALL

Imora, Feb. 7; Devil's

3; Grafton, Feb. 10.

Ontario Province.

OR TURNER

nwall, Sat., Sun. and

23, 24; Morrisburg

Ogdensburg, Wed.

Sat., Thurs., Feb. 27;

Sat. and Sun., Feb. 28.

int St. Charles, Mon.

Feb. 3; Montreal L.

March 6, 7.

C REVIVALISTS

son, Tuesday, Feb. 4.

10; Gananoque, Wed.

Thurs., Feb. 20; Brock-

21, to Mon. March 3;

6, March 6, to Mon.

ONS.

having money to invest are requested to the Army funds. Send them to into it, you will have the address in the work of God, the work of or facilities, thus offering you the reatest of lives.

Next Week — BEGINNING OF THE SIEGE!

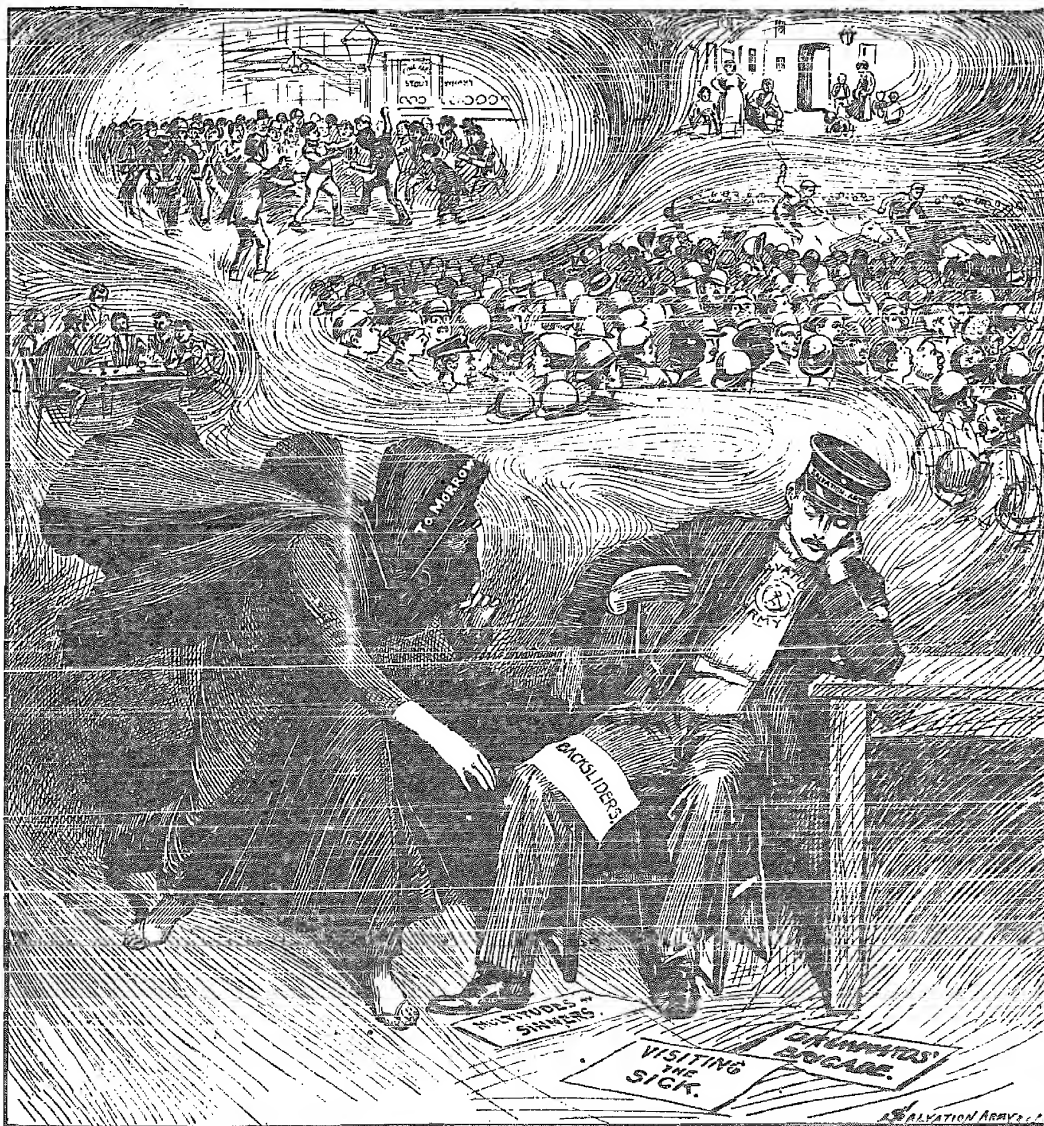

18th Year, No. 20.

WILLIAM BOOTH,
General.

TORONTO, FEBRUARY 15, 1902.

EVANGELINE BOOTH
Commissioner

Price, 5 Cents.

THE GREATEST THIEF IN THE WORLD.

(See article page 4.)

GOD'S TIME.

By A. D. C. S.

It was a beautiful summer evening. The intense heat that had prevailed during the day had somewhat subsided, a refreshing breeze had sprung up, so I started out for a walk into the suburbs of a busy city. I had been waiting for some time for the fulfillment of some of the precious promises which a loving God had made to me, and desired to be alone with Him, that He might the more perfectly reveal His will to me. All Nature looked so grand! The trees clothed with freshness and verdure. The birds were chirping in the branches their evening song; the flowers closing up their petals for the night; but, somehow, Nature did not seem to speak to me, or unfold the problem that was upon my mind, though the peacefulness of the scene seemed to creep into my soul; I was stilled and quieted.

As I turned down one of the streets, I saw unexpectedly a small church, from which issued the sound of sweet boyish voices. It was the choristers, who were practicing some pieces for the coming Sunday service. Going softly up the steps, I listened in the porch for a few moments to hear the words that were sung, but, somehow, it was not the words alone that impressed me, which were, as near as I can remember, "We praise Thee, Oh Lord!" Above the clear, sweet notes rang out the sharp tick, tick of the baton, and as the choir leader marked the time of the music, I could scarcely tell why, but a sudden mist came over my eyes, and the tears welled up so quickly, that the sharp sound of the baton wrote a message upon my heart, and perhaps it will reach down upon some other heart through the medium of the War Cry. It was entitled "God's time."

The Message of the Baton.

The message was somewhat like this: "Child, the life of each of God's children is like a piece of beautiful music. It is written in whatever tune He sees is best; each has each note, but differently. Those who know not why some of it is set in the exquisite minors of sorrow, sadness, and hereafter; or why that long, weary sickness takes hold of long, weary frame and causes the deep-throated agony. Thou wouldst sometimes there were no rests, but that all the time were filled up in active service for the Master, but His Hand has written it otherwise. How long the waiting-time seems sometimes! It may be slow time, but it thou wouldst hurry, thou wilt change the melody; if one part were altered, it will not yield the Harmony which the Master heart of a Divine Composer has intended. Listen! above every other sound thou wilt hear the clear sound of God's baton. He marks the time for every sorrow, every sickness and difficulty. Only patiently wait His tune and the music of thy life shall be changed into deepest notes of praise, for all the way He has led thee; in this life shall begin the song, which shall be continued in Heaven, Glory, Honor, Dominion, and Power to Him that sitteth upon the Throne, and to the Lamb forever!

SUNRISE IN THE TROPICS.

"It will hardly be credited by those who have never visited a hill country in the tropics," writes a recent traveler, "that soon after sunrise, the noise of awakening beetles and tree-toads is so great as to drown the bellowing of a bull, or the roar of a tiger a few paces off. The sound resembles most nearly the metallic whirr of a hundred Bradford looms. One beetle in particular, known to the natives of Penang as the 'trumpeter,' bustles himself all day long in producing a booming noise with his wings."

We cannot always be doing noble deeds, but we can always do the most common-place acts nobly. It is the pure intention which turns the most mental work into gold.

PICKED UP

The Salvation Army has become the life-boat for drowning men.

The best teacher of duties that are dim to us is the practice of those we see and have at hand.

To lead men or children, lastingly, we must be utterly frank and honest with them.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

Wealth does not make a home. It takes thoughtful, sympathetic comrades to make a home.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

To be constantly pulling up the seeds of life to see if they have sprouted is a serious menace to the health of the plant.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. What I can do, I ought to do, and what I ought to do, by the grace of God I will do."

We do not shake off our yesterdays, and maintain no further relation to them; they follow us, they constitute our life, and they give accent, and force, and meaning to our present deeds.

The chief secret of success is not doing more than doing what you can do well, without a thought of fame. If fame comes at all, it will come because it is deserved, not because it is sought after.

It is not enough that, in following his occupation, the worker incidentally helps the world along; what is required is that he desires to do, plans to do it, and finds a large part of his reward in the consciousness of having done it.

Mental differences are legion. No two minds run in the same channels, or think exactly each other's thoughts. Truth is many-sided, and multitudes of men and women stand apart viewing continually but one of her phases. Did they but move around her, changing their respective attitudes, they would appreciate one another far better.

"THE UNKNOWN HALF."

This is the title of the Annual Report, now in preparation, and shortly to be issued in magazine size, at ten cents per copy. We can only urge our readers to order of their officers a copy at their first opportunity, since the edition will be limited, and the demand will certainly quickly exhaust the supply.

The unique title, "The Unknown Half," is explained in the Introduction by the Commissioner, Miss Booth, a splendid half-tone portrait of whom adorns the first page of the Report. The latter includes a complete review of the work in all its branches, making it especially valuable to our numerous friends who have no opportunity to keep themselves current with our advances.

Some idea of its contents may be gathered from the following chapter headings:

Our Pedigree.
On the King's Highway.
Barracks Room Ballads.
Ministering Angels.
White-Wings and Messengers.
Mighty Meetings.
The Making of Leaders.
Red-Hot Revivals.

Fill in the blank lines, cut out, and hand to the officer in charge.

PLEASE supply me with a copy of "THE UNKNOWN HALF," being the latest Annual Report of the Salvation Army in this country, at the price of ten cents.

Name

Address

"You say it will come right by-and-bye. What will? Begin wrong and end right? Never! Two divergent lines go on widening to all eternity. If a man begins wrong, he will come back with bleeding feet and torn flesh, and streaming eyes, and a brick on his head."

In German-Switzerland, two young fellows were convicted by the Spirit of God; but, in spite of entreaties and prayers, would not yield. The day after the meeting, one of them was bathing in the Rhine and was drowned; the other got linked with some evil companions, and was arrested for theft.

The various experiences which come to every individual are opportunities which may yield untold advantages if he resolutely searches into their causes and acquaint himself with their operations. Thus only can he control his life, and extract from it its true value to himself and to society.

It is a beautiful world once we learn how to live. There is beauty in every mental duty, there is inspiration in every hardship and sacrifice, if only once we learn to each hardship and each sacrifice form but one more stepping-stone that lifts us up above the level of the commonplace and nearer the heights of divine endurance that makes life a glorification of the spirit.

When it comes to be realized by the great majority of the universe that severity and harshness are usual; the result of a poverty of intellect that fails to comprehend human nature, and that charity, sympathy, gentleness, and good feeling are the sure fruits, not only of a kindly heart, but of a thoughtful brain, a long step will have been taken towards the increase of human welfare and happiness.

Aged people have a claim on the young, a claim for delicate consideration, for tender care, for unfeeling reverence. Each new generation is apt, as it comes joyously to the front, to look down with a slight condescension on the one which is withdrawing from the active scene; but the looking down should be looking up, for the old have borne and suffered, endured and triumphed, in order that the path for their successors may be easier.

Of Such is the Kingdom.
Slaves of Sorrow.
Orphans and Waifs.
The Branded Man.
The Dethroned of Humanity.
The League of Mercy.
Missing.
Christmas Cheer.
The Light Brigade.

The Report is profusely illustrated by excellent pictures and photos from life.

To our soldiers and officers it will be an inspiration and source of thankfulness; to our auxiliaries and friends it will give a good account of the use made of their generous support of our work; to the indifferent it will give information which will make them into friends, and our enemies, such as we may have, and such as will read this booklet, it will disarm, and force them to declare us friends and helpers of the needy and helpless. Space forbids a more detailed review of the contents to-day, but we declare a gratifying reception for our Annual Report on the part of the public.

We would again urge all our readers to at once order of the Captain a copy of the illustrated report by filling up the blank below:

OUR HISTORY CLASS

III—THE GERMANS.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Ruprecht A.D. 1406-1410
Jobst 1410-1411
Sigismund 1411

Ruprecht of the Rhine was a good and able man, but there was still a party who made the existence of Wenzel an excuse for obeying nobody, and the new King was not strong enough to force them to obey him. He tried to interfere in the affairs of Italy, which was in a state of great disorder, but he was defeated at Brescia where the Duke of Austria was made prisoner, and this battle was the last the Germans fought on the other side of the Alps for at least fifty years, during which time the great free towns were nearly all seized by tyrant citizens, who took the chief power.

In Germany Ruprecht was more respected, and put down the injustice of the Markgraf of Baden, who made everyone who went through his lands pay a heavy toll. Ruprecht married his eldest son, Ludwig, to Blanche, daughter of Henry IV. of England, but she died at the end of the first year.

On Ruprecht's death, in 1410, the Electors went back to the House of Luxembourg; but they were not agreed, half of them taking Jobst of Luxembourg, Markgraf of Moravia, son of a younger son of the blind John of Bohemia; and the other half, his cousin Sigismund, King of Hungary, and Elector of Brandenburg. Jobst was crowned, but died the next year, 1411, and at the diet ensuing, Sigismund, as Elector, voted for himself, saying that there was no one whose good qualities he knew as well as his own. The others agreed to accept him, and he was crowned at Aachen.

He was a clever man, with good intentions, but vain and slightly, and with the restless spirit of all the Luxembourg family. He was anxious to bring the Great Schism to an end, for it was now worse than ever, an attempt at a council having been held which had deposed both Popes and elected another, but as neither would obey it, there were three Popes, just as there had been, during John's life, three Kings of Germany at the same time. The need was the more felt that the teaching of the English John Wickliffe had been brought to Bohemia by the followers of Queen Anne, and had found favor at the University of Prague with two Bohemian scholars, Johann Huss, professor of philosophy, and Jerome Faulfack, a master of arts. Wenzel had encouraged them, and the more Catholic professors had all gone off to a body to Leipzig. Hussite preaching had spread through Bohemia, and the Czechs were strongly crying out against the Pope's claim to be universal Bishop, and against the staying the Cup in the Holy Communion to the laity, as well as many of the horrid corruptions that had grown up in the Church. One of the worst of these was, that whereas the Pope had ventured to declare that whoever went on a crusade, or on a pilgrimage to Rome, would be freed from a certain number of years of penance, Huss had been called Purgatory, it had lately been said that indulgences, remitting part of the penance might be had for money, which was supposed to go in alms, but was generally spent on the needs of the Pope and his Cardinals.

(To be Continued.)

In the rugged hills of toil and hardship life's finest goal is found.

"Get the habit—a glorious one—referring all to Christ. How did He feel, think, act? So then must I feel, think, and act. Should I please myself? for even Christ pleased not Himself."

A TROPHY

Life Story of Sergt-Major J. Stapleton. Desperate Poverty—Free Appointments—Saved—Backslidings—Court—A Love Affair—Came to Good Ending.

TOLD

WAS born in England in a small village by the name of Ridgemount, in Bedfordshire. My parents were very poor, my father blind, and to add to these misfortunes, there was a large family to support. Father did what he could at basket making, but owing to the sad conditions money was very scarce. Consequently, I was not able to go to school, as mother could not afford to pay the fee, though small, for it was very difficult to even get enough money to buy bread to keep us alive. It will be understood, therefore, I had little education.

When about eight years of age I used to lead my blind father about often walking into the country to pick the time away. I remember on one of these trips, as we were passing a wood, I saw what I thought to be a magpie's nest, high up in one of the large branches of a very high tree. I remember persuading my father to let me climb the tree to see if there were in the nest any young magpies, while I stood at the bottom of the tree, and told him what I saw. When he reached the nest, it was only to find it empty. Oh, how very tired I used to be! We would reach home again for these trips, as well as being tired, by hunger. As often as not, the father would not be anything to eat in the house, and I would have to go to without supper, crying myself sleep. Poor mother would then try to get something for me. If successful, she would wake us up to give us some food.

My sisters were older than I, and used to work at straw-plaiting, making bonnets and hats. They would quietly sit up till midnight to get a certain amount done by the time the buyer would come, so as to be able to buy us something to eat. I remember well their poor fingers, their lips would often be covered with blood, due to the fact that they had to draw all the straw between their lips to double them. When bread was short, mother used to cut us a slice each, and put the rest away in the pantry. Occasionally we would get a very small piece of pork Sunday dinner, and sometimes a little piece of lard on our bread; but was more often dry bread, and the few we were for that. The above give you a slight idea of our struggles.

S.-M. Stapleton's Father.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A play actor, of a well-known theatrical company, got converted in Major Bennett's office recently. He has been on the stage for twenty-three years, but has now decided to become a soldier of Jesus Christ and the Salvation Army.

A dear and tried friend of the Army, whose generous gifts have often helped forward its work, even from the earliest days of its infancy and obscurity to the present hour, called at the London Headquarters a few days ago, and having heard that the S.A. was in immediate need of £10,000 to clear away the financial burdens connected with the work of mercy for the poor, promised £2,000, on condition that the balance of the sum required be made up immediately. It is indeed a splendid gift, a great cheer to the General, and it also creates an opportunity for our wealthy friends.

The Commandant and Mrs. Booth are now settled for a time at their residence in Western Australia. It will be remembered by those who have closely followed the Cry, that they are not only staying there with a view to regulating health for future work of the highest importance, but for the purpose of establishing and laying down the lines for the development of an important estate which the Army has acquired for the benefit of the poor. The property, which is likely to become very valuable, extends to about twenty thousand acres of land, and upon it is some of the finest timber in Australia. Both the Commandant and Mrs. Herbert are already benefiting from their change. In his last letter to International Headquarters, the Commandant says: "I am trying earnestly to throw off all anxiety and as far as I can, consistently with what I feel is my duty to this scheme—to rest. I wish I could say I find it as easy as it might be! But I am trusting in God, and seeking as, perhaps, I never did in my whole life, for His presence, and power, and guidance. I have had some precious seasons with Him here alone in the 'wilderness.' I desire more of His love and wisdom. He has given me some rich blessings." Our Canadian Salvationists join in saying, "God bless the Commandant!"

UNITED STATES.

At Honolulu (Sandwich Islands) ten Candidates for officership applied last year, and already have been accepted.

One of the sights of "Chinatown" (San Francisco) is the Army, with its big crowd of Chinamen, in the open air. The meetings are nearly always conducted in Chinese, either direct or through an interpreter. Some of the Bishops at the recent Episcopal Convention were quite interested with our work among the Chinese. At a recent Sunday night meeting two bright Chinamen came out and sought salvation, being dealt with by their own countrymen in their native language.

We learn that Adjutant and Mrs. Savage, old Canadian officers, are doing well at Philadelphia, which is, by the way, the oldest corps in the country.

The Commander's meetings in Nashville, Tenn., were very successful. Quoting from our contemporary we learn: "The meetings were simply superb; the building packed in the afternoon, and thousands turned away. We had to repeat the lecture at night, when the place was again packed, and the doors closed half an hour before time. Collections and door-money $700—the biggest financial victory—indeed, for crowds and everything—we have ever seen in the South. The theatre had at least 2,000 jammed in each time. It was a sight."

INDIA.

The total attendance at the Vadsari Hospital of out-door patients amounts to about sixteen hundred and fifty monthly, while the eight beds in the medical, and the ten in the surgical wards are usually full.

The Prison Gate Farm Dairy has been much extended and improved, and, besides supplying a large number of customers, the Dairy also supplies Lady Javelock's Hospital, the Prison Hospital, and Melikada Jail with milk.

Our village banks are still able to give a good account of themselves, and have each year, in a very satisfactory way, "settled up" according to the terms of their agreements. The villagers are unanimous in their opinion, and are ever thankful for these banks, which have, in many instances, rescued them from the sweeping current of poverty and the grasp of cruel usurious men.

Day schools have increased in Madras and Telugu Territory till there are twenty-four in working order, eleven of which are under the care of Major Deva Sundrum in the city of Madras and its suburbs. Each school has a capable teacher, and, in addition to the educational side of the school, meetings are regularly held among the children, and many of them profess to have found the Saviour.

Our industrial School has outgrown its accommodation, and is now sheltered in a large and commodious house on the banks of the river, the property and formerly the residence of a great Mahomedan leader, Aga Khan. Ensign N. U. D. an officer with a true mother's heart, so devotes herself to the well-being of her little charges as to have won the compliment of the Collector, the Government Official, who pronounced it the healthiest school he had inspected in his district. He backed up his praise by the present of a most useful medicine chest.

SWITZERLAND.

Both the German-Swiss and French-Swiss War Crys, published in Switzerland, are to be improved and enlarged.

Port Antonio, W.I. View from the Sea.

NORWAY.

Permission has been given for the Army to visit the prisoners in the Norwegian Convict Prison some time before they are to be discharged. A special officer will be set apart for this work. The condition upon which this undertaking is to be carried into effect is, that when a convict has served his sentence, the Army becomes responsible for him, giving him assistance and finding him work—provided, of course, he is desirous of receiving such help.

AUSTRALASIA.

The reception meetings planned in three centres—Melbourne, Sydney, and Brisbane—prior to the Commissioner's arrival, have now closed. Crowded meetings have been the order everywhere. Commissioner and Mrs. McKie have been received with great arms. They, too, have made a mighty impression for God and the Army; 561 have been registered at the Mercy Seat—296 for salvation, and 265 for the Pentecostal fire. Well may we sing with glad acclamation: "Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow."

The Christmas feasts for the poor of Melbourne and other centres have been very successful. At the Centre provision was made for about 3,000 persons. There were tents for children of the poor in all parts of the city, for the old people, and for the homeless poor, besides parcels for poor families, in which there was sufficient food to provide a substantial dinner for four or six persons. In addition to all this, bountiful provision was made to cheer the hearts of all those who were in our Social institutions at Melbourne as well as throughout the Territory.

The Siege Target for the Territory.

2,500 Prisoners.

1,000 New Soldiers.

1,000 Junior Converts.

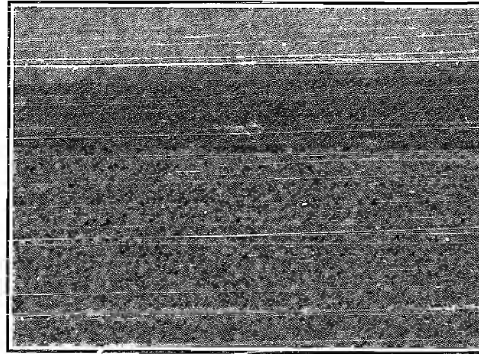

500 New Junior Soldiers.

WILL EVERY SOLDIER AIM AT MAKING ONE OTHER SOLDIER?

WEST INDIES.

Adjutant Naden (a D.O. in Jamaica) sometimes conducts open-air meetings under unusual circumstances, as the following note will conclusively show: "On Monday I proceeded to the Society at Hatfield. It is situated upon the mountainside somewhere. We had a good meeting in the open-air. The night was dark; but, with the assistance of a small lamp and innumerable fires, we were able to see each other, and to fire some heavy shot into the midst of the large crowd that gathered round."

The town of Port Antonio is the centre of the fruit trade, and the headquarters of the United Fruit Company. Sometimes a dozen steamers will leave this port in one week, loaded with bananas for various American ports. The company owns a large hotel here, and some thousands of acres of banana plantations within a few miles of the town.

Port Antonio, W.I., from an Inland View.

We have an Army corps in the town, which does a good work among the people who load the banana steamers, and others. Just now there is a spiritual awakening, and precious souls are seeking salvation, and many others are under deep conviction of sin. Capt. Howell, who is in charge of the corps, is a native of Demerara, who has recently passed through the Training Home.

QUESTIONABLE BOOKS

Someone asked the late Dwight L. Moody if he had read a certain book. He replied, "No, I believe there is poison in it; at least I have heard so on good authority." The friend said, "But, wouldn't it be well for you to read it for yourself?" "No," said Mr. Moody; "if I take poison in my stomach the doctor has to come with a stomach-pump to take it out. Why should I take poison in my mind? I might never be able to get it out."—Margaret Boston, in the February Ladies' Home Journal.

It not take their name of
It work six days, and rest
It honor thy father and
It not kill.
It not commit adultery.
It not steal.
It not bear false witness.
It not covet any of thy people, or his property, or burying ground an year.
Bury yourself here every day, for live.
Utch St. Paul: Whether unto the Lord, an' who e, we die unto the Lord.
vin' er dyin' we're ther

Social Department.

UT-COL. MRS. READ.

WORK IN THE WEST.

ain Jost, the devoted and a Divisional Officer for the ical Work in the Pacific s doing aggressive work full of faith and hope fer ity and success of the k in the Homes under her mo, under the management of Captain Jost, is doing and proving a harbor of many poor storm-tossed r has been a shelter to have come within its presented. Captain Jost's desires now interest in the the opening of the new an appalling need of Restoration in the Pacific Provinces.

In Captain Jost has resulting to reach those who a helping hand. She has on appointed Police Ma-position has already in contact with those are anxious to reach. A per reports the appointments:

POLICE MATRON.

Matron of the Salvation Army Home, is sworn in matron of the Salvation Home, of 8729
City Clerk Boyd, as on. She will act without as sworn in with the conmissioner Lillian she will not receive pay y, she will be allowed to

Her duties have not ed by the police commissioner, but Matron Jost will and Chief Witherspoon morning, when she will be s to what duties she will to perform. In an interview, she said:

addy accepted the position and shall be willing to directed. Of course, I shall to devote all my time at
I shall be at the station 1 hours, but outside of that to the jail whenever my needed. I have been the Home here since last ave been in the Rescue e past seven years."

nor Lillian said: "I t came to me to-day and services, and I am glad to ffer. I have been in favor a woman to take care of prisoners is something ng been needed in 1900

Witherspoon said: "I am glad to see a woman. It will relieve a deal of care which can y be done by a woman."

Our SOLDIERS' PAGE

Short Sermons on Stirring Subjects.

SUNDAY.

"And all this assembly shall know that the Lord saveth not with the sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord's, and He will give you into our hands."—I. Sam. xvii. 47.

Some are so wicked as to say, "that if it be the Lord's battle, we are excused from fighting," as if refusing to sow, we might justly expect to reap. We are all battling on one side or the other, and the worst of all are those who boast their neutrality.

"The battle is the Lord's." If we but care for His cause, He will care for us. Queen Elizabeth requested a merchant to go abroad on her service, and when he mentioned that his own business would be ruined, she replied, "You must, my business and I will ruin yours."

If it be but the Lord's battle, we may be sure He will see us through with Him.

MONDAY.

"Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the horns of the altar."—I. Kings, ii. 28.

Joab's conscience pricks him when he hears that Solomon is dealing with other offenders. Joab was a remorseless warrior, yet when his own turn comes, he flies from death.

Joab had little enough religion, yet he flies to the altar when the sword pursues him.

Joab refuses to quit his shelter, and falls slain at the altar. Sacramento, religious observances, Salvation Army membership, professions, doctrines, feelings, in health or in sickness, are unavailing as a means of salvation.

"The Lord Jesus is well pleased that we should fly to Him. He is our Deliverer!"

TUESDAY.

"But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree; and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life; for I am no better than my fathers."—I. Kings, xix. 4.

Salvationists, as well as other Christians, sometimes enter into a strange and mysterious state of depression, and it is well to learn from Scripture that another has been in that Valley of Deathshade. At such a time they imagine that some strange thing has happened unto them; but, instead, it is not so.

God's tenderness to Elijah—He allowed him to sleep; He fed him with food. "An angel watched him." He allowed him to tell his grief (see verse 10); that is often the readiest relief. Elijah then told the good news.

Personally the writer has so often proved that seasons of temptation and depression have been the forerunners of great spiritual awakenings. Remember always, "Naught has come to you but what His love allowed."

WEDNESDAY.

"And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she was come to Solomon, she commended with him of all that was in her heart."—I. Kings, x. 2.

It is not generally a wise thing to tell out all you know. Samson reached the climax of folly when he did this to Delilah. Yet if we could meet with a Solomon who could solve all our difficulties, we might wisely do so.

We have a greater than Solomon in Jesus. The mischief is that with Him we are too silent, and with worldly friends too communicative. This evil should be rectified.

What would be said of a member of a family who refused to speak with his father or his brother? What a source of unhappiness to have such a person in the house! What, then, must it be thought of a Salvationist who has not a constant intercourse with Christ? True love is communicative; it cannot bear to keep its secrets from its beloved.

Let us be simple with Him, then, not backward, stiff, or cold.

THURSDAY.

"And as thy servant was busy here and here, he was gone. And the King of Israel said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it."—I. Kings, xx. 40.

A man must be hard run indeed when he cannot forge an excuse. This is a very common one for the loss of the soul: "I was very busy, and had no time to attend to religion."

Excuse-making is also too often the fault of Salvation Army soldiers—"I haven't time now to come to meetings and attend ourselves as I used to when first saved." They say a bad excuse is better than none. This is very questionable. Here is an excuse which condemned the man who made it. The man in the prophet's story was ordered to keep a prisoner, and it became his first duty to do so; but he preferred to follow out his own wishes, and attend to his private concerns, and so the prisoner "was gone." Let us attend to the King's business let the consequences be what they may—His Kingdom first."

FRIDAY.

"They feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence."—II. Kings xvii. 33.

It is as needful to warn against the false as to urge to the true conversion, which is a divine change, is imitated, and the spurious painted as genuine. This answers the devil's purpose in many ways: it eases the conscience of the double-minded, hurls the influence of the Army, injures its testimony, and dishonors true religion.

In real conversion there must be idol-breaking, Christ-trusting, and a full surrender. Our heart must yield to God and delight in His ways.

SATURDAY.

"And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray Thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."—II. Kings, vi. 17.

Faith serves the believer for eyes, and makes him see what others cannot. This keeps the man himself quiet and calm, and enables him to check the fears of those who cry, "Alas, my master! how shall we do?"—verse 18.

From this narrative we learn how much may be about us, and yet it be invisible to the natural eye. The natural eye is blind to Heavenly things. God alone can open men's eyes; even those who see need more sight.

The dying prayer of William Tyndal, the martyr, uttered with a fervent zeal and loud voice, was: "Lord, open the King of England's eyes!"

HEADQUARTERS STAFF BAND AT THE TEMPLE.

We do not think anyone will dispute the fact that there is to be found at the Territorial Centre of the Salvation Army in Canada as fine an array of musical talent as can be found anywhere else in the world.

This splendid musical organization, known as the Headquarters Staff Band, has not only a magnificent brass band of some eighteen pieces when full mustered, but also has the additional advantage of the players being able to perform on such instruments as make up a very good orchestra in addition.

Our commanding officer, having asked the Staff Band to conduct a musical festival at the Temple, and having obtained the promise, did all he could in the way of announcement to make the meeting a success. It will readily be understood that a large crowd was present, who thought and enjoyed the pithy remarks of the chairman, in the person of Brigadier Gaslin, and the instrumental solo of the Bandmaster, Adjutant Griffith. Ensigns Barton and Arnold, readers of Mrs. Staff-Captain Stanton, beside quartettes, band and orchestra music.

We are certain the audience present thoroughly appreciated the music and the meeting throughout, and we believe it is not too much to say that the Staff Band and the Brigadier were equally delighted with their kind and enthusiastic reception. We have cause to believe people were not only pleased but blessed, as the words of the Brigadier, and the slinging of the beautiful song, "Sweet and Low," by the male quartette, brought the meeting to a close.

Evolution of the Salvation Army

(Continued.)

SWEDEN.

In point of interest, the opening of the Army's work in Sweden was not less than that of France and Switzerland. In 1878 the Chief of the Staff, Mr. Bramwell Booth, utterly exhausted by his executive labors and cares, went to Sweden, at the kind invitation of a friend, for a good rest. The rest soon took the form of meetings in drawing-rooms, or wherever else it was possible to get the people together. Multitudes sought and found salvation, among them being Hanna Ouchterloney, daughter of a wealthy family, who from those days determined that the Army must come to Sweden; and came it did in 1882, by the General commissioning "Major Ouchterloney" to open the work.

Halls were crowded. The riding-school in Stockholm, accommodating five thousand people, was jammed, with as many outside. Huge timber or coal yards were loaned, and thousands of people were to be seen standing for hours together on ice or snow, without any roof over them, listening to the testimonies of ex-Swedish drunkards and others washed in the Blood of the Lamb.

The success of the work was marvellous, and then

The Devil Began to Get Uneasy, and persecution began to come. Officers were fined enormously, and orders issued for meetings to be closed at 10 p.m. This was no sooner complied with than a second one was given to close at 9 p.m., which order appeared so absurd, and seeing it had no legal foundation, was ignored; the result being that officers were fined and imprisoned.

During those stormy days, Commissioner Booth-Holberg, then a student of Upsala University, got blessedly saved, and connected himself with the Army. The work has gone on; the clouds of bitter opposition have passed, and

The Sun Shines.

The Salvation Army is now a well-recognized social and moral power in Sweden. Its progress has been a great surprise to the many who thought our religion was a noise, and that our power to attract would disappear when the people became accustomed to the blue uniform and red badge of the men and the girlish bonnets of the women soldiers.

The Swede is generally held to be cold and distant. The Army has not found him so. There is as much emotional fire in him as there is in the Italian, with this difference, that it is not perhaps so easily reached, and when kindled, not so easily put out. The difference is great, and explains—If our readers desire the human explanation for the strong hold we have in Sweden—the progress which we have made.

The work of the Army in Sweden is chiefly remarkable for the following: the steady manner in which it has dispelled public prejudice and won the favor of the good and true to its side; the high devotion and constant self-sacrifice of its officers; particularly the number who came in on the first flood, and who have nobly stood by the colors since; the cheerful readiness of a large number of its converts to become soldiers and wear the uniform; the practical and yet hidden character of its Glim work; the rapid advance of its Social Work; and its steady growth in the principles and doctrines of the Salvation Army. Its present position, however, has not been gained without much difficulty. We were first created to considerable scorn by the press. Many officers and soldiers had to go to prison for conscience sake, until and by repeated acts of good sense and clemency brought this form of persecution to a close. We have also suffered occasionally by severe financial straits, and sustained damage by the desertion of hundreds of soldiers and some officers, through causes which, however, are not peculiar to Sweden. In the light of these general observations, the following review will, we hope, be read with some interest and deep thankfulness to God.

Diagram showing the number of officers in Sweden (1) ten years ago, and (2) at present.

King Oscar Intervened.

(To be continued.)

THE HAND-BELL

Brigadier Pickering Cor. End With Them at Bu. Good Cases of Con. Scarcely Room for Crowds.

The visit of Brigadier Provincial Officer, accom- famous Hand-Bell Ringers turn up from the north with delight by the people.

On Saturday night the high. The brigade had been to give us another mus and eight o'clock found ed to the door with a m and expectant audience. disappointed. The music came up to our highest, and was much appreciated.

On Sunday, at seven a-nounced with a rousing go-conducted by the Brigadier very near, and evergreen. Our holiness meeting was of much blessing. As t spoke on "Create in me a Oh God," many felt the n-entirely cleansed and sa-sought and found the ble God!

In the afternoon a ver-address on "The greatest World." The Brigadier liberty, and we believe through him to many be-close two souls sought p-

At night again there a-room for the crowd. Th-Rangers had received to-assist in the Methodist Ch-from seven to eight o'clo-as they arrived at the h-Pickering lined out th-"There is a better world," joined heartily in the e-from the very beginning God was felt.

"The Last Words of Je-title of the Brigadier's a-words were clothed with-as the meeting went on conviction stamped upon-The first to surrender w-for whom we had long b-then followed a man and another brother. May G-h bless them. We close-around eleven p.m., prai-victory. The income fe-amounted to $44.18.

God bless the Brigad-Hand Bell Ringers ex-many souls for their birc-Lieutenant business let the consequences be what they may—His Kingdom first."

FRIDAY.

"They feared the Lord, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence."—II. Kings xvii. 33.

It is as needful to warn against the false as to urge to the true conversion, which is a divine change, is unlimited, and the spurious palmed off as genuine. This answers the devil's purpose in many ways; it eases the conscience of the double-minded, it shows the influence of the Army, it shows its testimony, and dishonors true religion.

In a real conversion there must be idol-breaking, Christ-trusting, and a full surrender. Our heart must yield to God and delight in His ways.

SATURDAY.

"And Ellsha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray Thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and, behold, the mountain was full of churches, and churches of fire, and about Ellsha."—II. Kings, vi. 17.

Faith serves the believer for eyes, and makes him see what others cannot. This keeps the man himself quiet and calm, and enables him to check the fears of those who cry, "Alas, my master! how shall we do?"

From this narrative we learn how much may be about us, and yet it be invisible to the natural eye. The natural eye is blind to heavenly things. God alone can open men's eyes; even those who see need more light.

The dying prayer of William Tyndal, the martyr, uttered with a fervent zeal and loud voice, was: "Lord, open the King of England's eyes!"

HEADQUARTERS STAFF BAND AT THE TEMPLE.

We do not think anyone will dispute the fact that there is to be found on the Territorial Centre of the Salvation Army in Canada as fine an array of musical talent as can be found anywhere else in the world.

This splendid musical organization, known as the Headquarters Staff Band, has not only a magnificent brass band, but also has the additional advantage of the players being able to perform on such instruments as make up a very good orchestra in addition.

Our commanding officer, leaving asked the Staff Band to conduct a musical festival at the Temple, and having obtained the promise, did all he could in the way of announcement to make the meeting a success. It will readily be understood that a large number of the players, and especially the young ladies, are conversant with the play remarks of the chairwoman, in the person of Brigadier Cassin, and the instrumental solos of the bandmaster, Adjutant Griffith, Bandmaster, and the playing of Mrs. Staff Captain Stanton, beside quartettes, band and orchestra music.

We were certain the audience present thoroughly appreciated the music and we were meeting throughout, and we have it is not too much to say that the Staff Band and the Brigadier were equally delighted with their kind and enthusiastic reception. We have cause to believe people were not only won over but blessed, as the words of the beautiful song, "Sweet and Low," by the male quartette, brought the meeting to a close.

THE HAND-BELL RINGERS.

Brigadier Pickering Conducts Week-End With Them at Burk's Falls—Good Cases of Conversion—Scarcely Room for the Crowds.

The visit of Brigadier Pickering, our Provincial Officer, accompanied by the famous Hand-Bell Ringers, on their return trip from the north, was hailed with delight by the people of Burk's Falls.

On Saturday night the interest ran high. The brigade had been announced to give us another musical meeting, and eight o'clock found our hall packed to the door with a most attentive and expectant audience. We were not disappointed. The music and singing came up to our highest expectations, and was much appreciated by all.

On Sunday, at seven a.m., we commenced with a rousing good knee-dance, conducted by the Brigadier. God came very near, and everyone got blessed. Our holiness meeting was also a time of much blessing. As the Brigadier spoke on "Create in me a clean heart," many felt the need of being entirely cleansed and sanctified. Six sought and found the blessing. Praise God!

In the afternoon a very large audience gathered to hear the Brigadier's address on "The Greatest Thing in the World." The Brigadier had great ability, and we believe God spoke through him to many hearts. At the close two souls sought mercy.

At night again there was scarcely room for the crowd. The Hand-Bell Ringers had received an invitation to assist in the Methodist Church service from seven to eight o'clock. As soon as they arrived at the hall Brigadier Pickering lined out the words of "There is a better world." The people joined heartily in the singing, and from the very beginning the power of God was felt.

"The Last Words of Jesus" was the title of the Brigadier's address. His words were clothed with power, and as the meeting went on we could see conviction stamped upon many faces. The first to surrender was a brother for whom we had long been praying, then followed a man and his wife and another brother. May God abundantly bless them. We closed somewhere around eleven p.m., praising God for victory. The income for the week amounted to $44.18.

God bless the Brigadier and the Hand-Bell Ringers, and give them many souls for their hire.

Lieutenant E. Mosder.

THE WAR CRY.

SALVATION ARMY BAND, CALGARY.

Bandmaster F. Cogges, saved in the Army, at Kingston, Ont., seven years ago. A Canadian by birth and a musician from his youth up. He is now using his talents in the service of God, and it is mainly through his efforts that the band has reached its present high state of efficiency. Plays 1st cornet.

Capt. Gilliam is a native of Sussex, Eng. Converted to God in the Army at Portage la Prairie, ten years ago; entered the field as an officer two and a-half years ago, and has been signally blessed and honored by God while in active service. Is filled with the Holy Ghost, and has been a real help and spiritual blessing to the Calgary corps since his appointment here last July. Also plays 1st cornet.

Bro. Styles is Band Sergeant. Was a drunkard, and got as low down as sin and the devil could take him. Going into an Army barracks, at Bracebridge, Ont., some seventeen years since, with a boon companion, both under the influence of liquor, he went out to the penitentiary farm without a thought of God, or what he was doing; but as the officers dealt with him, while on his knees, the Spirit of God took hold of him, with the result that before leaving the hall the drink-devil was driven out. God spoke peace to his soul, and to day he is a happy Salvationist, praising God all the time for the wonderful transformation wrought within him. Plays 2nd baritone.

Bro. Fullerton is a North-of-England man, but is an old-timer in Calgary, having settled here some nineteen years ago. Was saved among the "farmers" in the Old Country, but never knew what it was to enjoy the full light and liberty of God until he "joined the Army" some nine years ago. Is now the Sergt.-Major of the corps, and plays solo euphonium.

Bro. Bishop is a New Brunswicker. Got saved in the old barracks five years ago, and ever since has been an example of faithfulness to all around. Night after night finds Bro. Bishop on the march, and doing all he can to assist the officers in their work, and bringing sinners to the cross of Calvary. Bro. Bishop has also taken an active part in the Junior work ever since his conversion and for two years has been J. S. Sergt.-Major. His instrument is 1st tenor.

Bro. Batefield is also a Canadian. Was converted to God in Calgary three years ago, and has been a useful and consistent soldier ever since. At present is P. P. Sergt.-Major and plays 2nd tenor in the band, but we expect to lose him shortly, as he is a candidate for the field, and every bandsman prays that a long life of usefulness and successful service will be the lot of Bro. Batefield.

Bro. Michalski's face will be familiar to many readers of the War Cry, especially throughout Ontario, as our brother put in several years of successful officerdom principally in that Province. Although only a resident of Calgary since last fall, he has proved himself a tower of strength since his arrival amongst us. We thank God for it, and hope that circumstances will permit his permanent residence in Calgary. Plays baritone.

Bro. Wood is English. Saved ten years ago, and took an instrument almost immediately. Has made good progress. At present plays trombone. Bro. A. Cogges experienced a change of heart thirty years ago. Living in Kingston, Ont., nineteen years ago, when the Army opened fire in that place, Bro. Cogges soon came to the conclusion that they were God's people, and has been identified with the Army ever since. Is now transferred to the Calgary corps and plays soprano cornet in the band.

Bro. Watson, another bandsman, was in the Old Country when the photo was taken, so we are not able to present the War Cry with his picture, but must include him in this short sketch. "Tommy," as he is familiarly known, is Scotch, hailing from "Glasgow," and came to Manitoba as one of the boys in the barracks at Portage la Prairie, some ten and a-half years ago, he gave himself to God, and is still true to the organization that led him to the feet of the Saviour. Plays Bb bass.

Bro. Harrison and Spranger, our two drummers, are both English boys, and although only recently converted, are proving for themselves that Wisdom's ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.

We pray that God will continue to bless and help us in our efforts to save the lost. Spiritually, our band is first-class; all the boys are thorough in earnest, every one devoting themselves to push on the great salvation war.—T. K. Fullerton, S.M.

Our Picton Campaign.

Nearly 3,000 Attended the Services—Barracks Gorged and People Turned Away—Brick Method-ist Church Lent to Accommodate the Large Crowds—31 Seekers.

By BRIGADIER PUGMIRE.

Our Picton campaign was a triumph. Ensign and Mrs. Pugh had taken every trouble to make the meetings widely known, consequently the barracks was crowded out, and nearly 3,000 persons attended the services during the eleven days we were in the town.

Christians from other churches turned in to help us. What unity! What testimony! and what interest was manifested! Picton is hard on the soul-saving line, and we had to fight for every one we got. We scored twenty for pardon, and eleven for the blessing, while nine go on the recruits' roll and two on the Juniors' roll.

The Last Night.

We had a glorious wind-up in the brick Methodist Church, kindly lent for the occasion, without asking. What a time we had, to be sure! The Rev. Mr. Leitch was in his glory, and very ably seconded our efforts. Now we see Mrs. Pugh for souls in the congregation, and then talking to the penitents. Here a man and wife kneel side by side at the Mercy Seat and there a young woman with tears seeks the Lord, and then she pleads for her father, who is sitting unmoved in the church. We ask the father if he will come and kneel beside his daughter. His reply was, "Yes, I will come," and soon he is by his daughter's side seeking forgiveness too, and they keep coming, until thirteen surrender. Hallelujah!

A letter to hand says: "Tonight three knelt at the Mercy Seat and found salvation, and we are expecting still greater things. The majority of last night's converts were present and gave bright, clear testimonies, and the people are praying for you."

God bless Picton, and may His grace keep all the dear converts, and His Spirit be poured out upon His people in a still greater measure. Amen!

Notes.

We have been reinforced by Capt. Urquhart, from the East, who is a good acquisition to us, and plays sweet music on his violin and cornet.

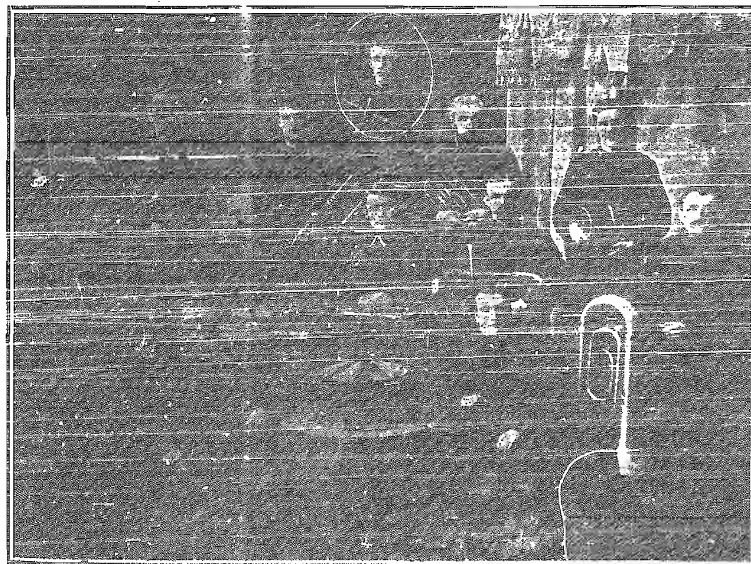

On our last night in Picton, little Florence Emmaline Pugh was dedicated to God and the Army under the flag. It was a beautiful service, and the young lady behaved herself very fittingly for the occasion, and was a credit to her parents.

We have just commenced our special campaign in Peterboro, and God has already begun to work, and we have seen twenty-one surrenders for pardon and purity. Adj. and Mrs. Moore are hopeful for a good break.

We are continually receiving letters of gratefulness from different parts from some of our spiritual children. Some are being called to be officers, etc. etc. Oh, what a work! What a commendation to use such unworthy, unprofitable materials! Praise His Name! He shall have all the glory! so says Staff-Capt. Manton and your humble dust.

The Commissioner's meetings at both Kingston and Picton have left a marked impression behind. Soldiers have been inspired, and friends have been helped and drawn nearer to us, while new friends have been made. God bless and sustain the Commissioner.

While at Picton we were kindly entertained by His Worship Mayor Clapp and Mrs. H. McMillen and his sister. God bless them!

S. A. Brass Band, Calgary, Alberta.

PRINTED BY FRANKLIN BROWN, Commission of the War Cry, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ont. All communications for publication in this paper, or to be sent to the Editor, should be addressed to THE EDITOR, THE WAR CRY, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ont. All communications on matters relating to subscription, advertising, and changes of address, should be addressed to THE MANAGER, THE WAR CRY, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ont. All communications on matters relating to subscription, advertising, and changes of address, should be addressed to THE MANAGER, THE WAR CRY, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ont. All communications on matters relating to subscription, advertising, and changes of address, should be addressed to THE MANAGER, THE WAR CRY, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, Ont.

The Commissioner.

We hail with delight the increasing activity of the Commissioner before the public. Her recent meetings at Onitilla, Kingston, Picton, and Owen Sound have been unequalled. Although Miss Booth has always had magnificent audiences, yet it seems that she is more appreciated than ever, and her meetings are marked by even greater success than before. Souls have been saved, spiritual interest awakened and quickened, and the finances have been without parallel. The Commissioner's public appointments have been made well ahead. That they will be equal to the recent ones is beyond doubt.

An Excellent Aim.

In connection with the Siege we would lay especial stress upon the original idea for every enrolled soldier to aim at making another soldier during the Siege. It is a splendid idea, which at once gives definite importance to each soldier's duty. The task is not so difficult as it may appear, but it will nevertheless require persistent and loving effort to accomplish it. It urged on by the C. O. and accepted enthusiastically by the soldiers, it will at once regulate the efforts of each soldier without overlapping. It gives at the same time ample scope to each soldier to exercise his own thoughts and to put into practice his individual ideas.

The Unknown Hall.

Under this title, the Annual Report for last year is now on the press, and will presently be on sale at all the corps. We would like to make it plain that the booklet is not only a report of the local operations of the Army, but includes all branches of Army Work, giving interesting incidents, facts and figures about it, and is well illustrated from cover to cover. A very fine engraving of Miss Booth forms the frontpiece. The Commissioner has written the introduction, and the balance sheets of the Army are appended. The "Unknown Hall" will be sold at ten cents, which is a popular price, and will doubtless facilitate a large sale of the report.

IMPORTANT.

The Chief Secretary is anxious to have the names of all Salvationists in the Territory holding 1st, 2nd, or 3rd class teachers' certificates. Whether officers or soldiers, if you hold such, kindly communicate at once, with Col. Jacobs, S. A. Temple, Toronto, Ont.

Miss Booth at Owen Sound.

(By Wire.)

Miss Booth's visit to Owen Sound was during a tremendous blizzard, but in spite of wind and snow the church was gorged. For two hours the people were held spell-bound, listening with breathless interest. Their intense feeling was expressed freely in weeping all over the building. The Commissioner in eloquence and power surpassed anything yet heard. Everybody convinced of their obligation to God. The people were delighted. The congregation unanimously declared they never heard anything like it before. The finances were one hundred and ten dollars for the one meeting—Geo. Burditt, Staff-Captain.

Canadian Cuttings

A shock of earthquake was felt in New Brunswick.

Many wrecks are reported from the Maritime Provinces as the result of the big storm. The coal steamer Mira, from Boston, was lost near Yarmouth, N.S., and her crew was rescued with a line and basket with the utmost difficulty.

Mr. W. T. Thompson, formerly of the Yukon Sun, is in Vancouver with a plan for the wireless telegraphic system to Dawson.

Application for incorporation is made by another company to the Legislature, name not yet decided upon, with power to construct a railway from Lake Superior to the Albany River and Hudson Bay. The commencement of the line is to be at Peninsula Harbor, in Thunder Bay District, when it will run to Loeb Lake, and thence to Martin's Falls on the Albany.

It is reported that the C. P. R. will erect a large summer hotel at Rat Portage.

Three men were killed at Marsh Mines, near New Glasgow, N.S., while thawing dynamite.

Notre Dame Hospital at Montreal has been quarantined with 200 inmates, on account of one of the employees developing smallpox.

Madison liquor men presented a big petition to the Legislature for compensation in the event of the Prohibition Act being enforced.

American Items.

Arrangements have been made for Prince Henry of Germany to visit Niagara Falls on March 5, during his American tour.

The loss by the fire at Waterbury, Conn., is estimated at $4,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Both of the Biddle brothers, whose sensational escape from jail at Pennsylvania and recapture by a squad of detectives, has been reported in the last few days, are dead. The Biddle brothers had been condemned to death, but a respite was granted to prepare the case for the pardon board. Meanwhile the wife of the warden became infatuated with one of the Biddle brothers, and supplied them with revolvers and tools. They broke jail in a daring manner, but were recaptured while attempting to escape with the woman in a stolen sleigh. The men and the woman shot themselves before the detectives caught up with them.

Three people killed, two fatally hurt, and a score of others more or less injured, is the record made by two runaway cars on the Monongahela branch of the Pittsburg Railway Company.

Ten lives were lost in a fire in a Boston lodging-house.

British Bits.

The British War Office has ordered that 10,000 horses be bought in Prussia for use in South Africa.

New Zealand is raising a ninth contingent for South Africa.

Mr. Brudrick announced that the war expenses have been reduced to about £4,500,000 per month.

A thousand Maoris have volunteered to do garrison duty anywhere in the British dominions, with the object of relieving a similar number of British troops for service in South Africa.

The War Office casualty list shows that in an engagement at Abraham's Kraal, near Koffyfontein, Orange River Colony, Jan. 28, Col. L. E. Dumoulin of the Sussex Regiment and eight men were killed and seven men were wounded.

The Prince of Wales, who returned to London recently, is understood to have been much gratified by the reception extended him during his stay in Germany.

The Canadian Scouts, under Lieut. Col. Ross, are actively engaged in the operations now going on to capture Dewet.

A supplementary army estimate of £8,000,000 was issued recently, making the total expenditure for the army during the year £22,515,000.

Last week's Boer losses were 31 men killed, 20 wounded, 252 prisoners and 53 men surrendered.

Bishop Hartzell delivered an impressive address in Cape Town one recent Sunday evening. He said he saw a vision of a great and united people in South Africa, like that of America after four years of civil war.

Irish Relgion of Terror.

Despatches from Dublin contain alarming reports about the reign of terror prevailing in Roscommon County. Tenants who are suspected of paying rent are visited at night by armed men, notices are posted threatening death to traitors, and midnight meetings are of nightly occurrence, the people being assembled by beacon fires.

John O'Donnell is reported to have addressed a midnight meeting at Fairmount, at which he challenged the Chief Secretary for Ireland, Mr. Wyndham, to come into the open at the head of 5,000 or 10,000 men, either soldiers or police. If he (Mr. Wyndham) would give the men of Connaught a month to prepare, Mr. O'Donnell said he did not hesitate to declare that they would meet them, even at great numerical odds, and settle the land question for good.

Mixed Memo.

The first officer of the French ship Chénarat was landed at Palmouth. He is the sole survivor of the crew of twenty-two men of the vessel, which was capsized off Ushant.

An avalanche from Mount Dobratsch has partially overwhelmed the village of J. Diefberg, near the town of Villach, Austria. A number of persons have been killed.

Count Leo Tolstoy is again very ill. Over a hundred miners were killed by an explosion in the Mexican mine in Mexico.

Walter Gordon, the alleged White water murderer, arrived in Winnipeg and has been identified. Gordon murdered a farmer and his hired hand and threw them into an old well. He lived on the farm for some time, then fled, and enlisted in the mounted troops for South Africa. He was arrested at Halifax before the troopship left.

The Chamber of Deputies at Paris was the scene of a free fight recently between the Socialist and Catholic factions. The trouble grew out of a proposal to prosecute a Socialist for a recent revolutionary speech.

Unless Miss Stone's captors have abandoned her safely to the agents who have been trying to ransom her, she is not yet at liberty. It is quite certain that the ransom money has not been paid, and that the agents referred to have completely lost touch with the brigands.

Santos-Dumont made a trial ascent of his airship at Monte Carlo. Everything worked smoothly. He was readily answered her helm in the light breeze prevailing. After a tour of the harbor Santos-Dumont steered his craft back to her shed, amidst the cheers of the assembled crowds.

RED-HOT REVIVALISTS AT OWEN SOUND.

(Special.)

Staff-Capt. Burditt and Capt. Trickey have just started their Owen Sound campaign. Blizzards of snow and hurricanes of salvation. Fifteen seekers for pardon and purity for the week-end. More to follow. Town delighted with announcement of Miss Booth's visit. Expectations high. People aroused.—N. R. T.

BELLEVILLE BLAZING AHEAD.

105 Souls in Seven Weeks—67 Converts at Last Soldiers' Meeting.

Although we have not been reporting lately, yet we have not been idle by any means.

While God has been working in other places, Belleville, too, is having a wonderful moving of the Holy Spirit, and many have been brought from darkness into light, and from the power of sin unto God.

The revival began on Sunday, and in seven weeks from that time one hundred and five people sought pardon at the feet of Jesus, and found Him as their personal Saviour. Among the number converted there have been seven men and women ranging from sixteen to eighty years of age. Converts are on fire for God, working like old veterans. People say Belleville city has not known such a revival for years. The best of all is converts are growing strong in the Lord, and becoming full-fledged soldiers. At the last soldiers' meeting sixty-seven converts were present. —McInnes.

IMMEDIATELY.

Not long ago in Edinburgh, a lady, who was an earnest Christian worker, found a young woman whose feet had taken hold of hell, and who was pressing onwards to a barlot's grave. The lady begged her to go back to her home, but she said, "No, my parents would not receive her. This Christian knew what a wicked heart was; so she sat down and wrote a letter to the mother, telling her how she had met her daughter, who was sorry, and wanted to return. The next day she brought an answer back, and on the envelope was written, 'Immediately, immediately.' That was a mother's heart. They opened the letter. Yes, she was forgiven. They wanted her back, and they sent her money for her to come immediately. Sinner, that is the proclamation: 'Come immediately.' That is what the great and loving God is saying to every wandering sinner: 'Immediately.' —Moody.

THE CON

First Methodist Church Gorge
Welcome—Audience
Miss B

THE long-looked-for day arrived and we arrived bright and early and anxiously scan the heavens to see what kind of day is vouchsafed to us. It is to be a bright one. Yes, it is so; beautiful, bright as shine, and snappy cold. The clouds which had overhung yesterday, which portended stormy weather, all disappeared, and we were jubilant.

The arrangements for our beloved Commissioner's visit were all completed, and now we are expecting looking forward to 1.45, when leader was to make her appearance.

"Are you sure she will come?" asked by many, who, having heard Miss Booth's serious illness, were afraid that the strain of the Kingston meetings would prove too much for her strength, and Picton might be disappointed.

"Come? Oh, yes, sure!" said "No fear."

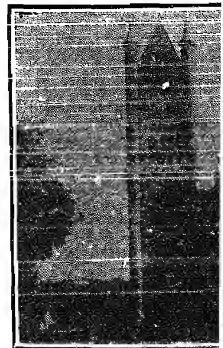

Prompt on time we were at the depot ready to give her a right good welcome.

The train pulled in on time, the fearful ones were relieved, soon they saw the object of their concern, Miss Booth, had arrived.

Another popular and oft-repeated question had been, "Will the crowd hold the crowd?" So great was the expectation of the people, that it even feared that the largest building in town would not be able to accommodate the people who were flocking to hear the heroine of the London slums.

About 5 p.m. the wind veered around to the north, and the weather became intensely cold—almost arctic. It began to fall; so did our spirits, it only proved to be a light flurry soon ceased, but got steadily colder until, at 6.30, opening time, the atmosphere was a sheet of ice; but despite fact, by 7.30, half an hour before time set for commencing, the First Methodist Church, kindly place at Miss Booth's disposal free of charge, was packed to its utmost capacity, many having to stand.

It is safe to say that, had not weather set in so bitterly cold, the crowds would have been turned away.

First Methodist

THE COMMISSIONER AT PICTON.

First Methodist Church Gorged—Mayor Clapp Reads Address of Welcome—Audience in Tears, Visibly Moved Over Miss Booth's Address.

THE long-looked-for day has arrived and we arise bright and early and anxiously scan the heavens to see what kind of a day is vouchsafed to us. Is it to be a bright one? Yes, it is so; beautiful, bright sunshine, and snappy cold. The clouds which had overhung yesterday, and which portended stormy weather, had all disappeared, and we were jubilant.

The arrangements for our beloved Commissioner's visit were all completed, and now we are expectantly looking forward to 1.15, when our leader was to make her appearance.

"Are you sure she will come?" was asked by many, who, having heard of Miss Booth's serious illness, were afraid that the strain of the Kingston meetings would prove too much for her strength, and Picton might be disappointed.

"Come? Oh, yes, sure!" said we. "No fear."

Prompt on time we were at the depot ready to give her a right down good welcome.

The train pulled in on time, and the fearful ones were relieved, for soon they saw the object of their concern, Miss Booth, had arrived.

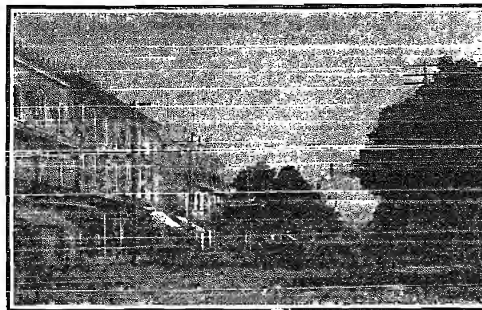

Another popular and oft-repeated question had been, "Will the church hold the crowd?" So great was the expectation of the people that they even feared that the largest building in town would not be able to accommodate the people who were flocking to hear the heroine of the London slums.

About 5 p.m. the wind veered around to the north, and the weather became intensely cold—almost arctic. Snow began to fall; so did our spirits, but it only proved to be a light flurry and soon ceased, but got steadily colder until, at 6.30, opening time, the streets were a sheet of ice; but despite this fact, by 7.30, half an hour before the time set for commencing, the large First Methodist Church, kindly placed at Miss Booth's disposal free of charge, was packed to its utmost capacity, many having to remain standing.

It is safe to say that, had not the weather set in so bitterly cold, hundreds would have been turned away.

as it prevented the country folk from driving in. As it was many did drive from six to fifteen miles to be present at the meeting. The magnificent audience was an inspiration to our leader, who excelled herself in the delivery of her celebrated lecture, "Rags."

Miss Booth, for nearly two hours, held her audience spellbound. The touching incidents so graphically and pathetically told, moved the audience in a wonderful degree, and many there were who were not ashamed to let the effect on their feelings be seen in the shedding of tears, even the sterner sex not being above being seen wiping the eye.

Part of Main Street, Picton, Ont.

Prior to the Commissioner's address, Mayor Clapp presented an address of welcome on behalf of the town, which was followed by the drills and slugging of Willie and Pearl, which captivated and took the people by storm.

Our beloved leader was ably supported by Major Turner, our worthy P. O., and the Red-Hot Revivalists, Brigadier Pugmire and Staff-Captain Manton, the latter two singing some beautiful duets at different points in the lecture.

It is superfluous to add that our Commissioner has captured the hearts of the Picton people, and on all sides we are hearing nothing but praises of her beautiful address.

Miss Booth was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McMullen, who were delighted at having her as an honored guest for the second time.

Notes.

"Nothing like it ever heard in Picton."—Leading citizen.

"Biggest audience ever seen in Picton, barring the General's visit."—One of a good crowd.

"Wasn't it kind of the trustees of the First Methodist Church to give you the church free of all cost?"—An old lady.

"Was $105 a good income for one night in a town of 3,600 people?" "I should guess—yes!"

"Do the people want the Commissioner to come back again?" "Yes."

yes, yes, yes!"—Richard Pugh, Esq.

"Miss Booth in Rags."

(From the Picton Gazette.)

Seldom, if ever, has the First Methodist Church held a larger or more orderly audience than assembled last night to listen to the story of Miss Eva Booth's work in the slums of London and Paris. Every seat, in both auditorium and gallery, was filled, and many were even glad to get standing room.

The service was opened by the Rev. Mr. Shorey, who led in prayer. Two little orphan children, who have been adopted by Miss Booth, gave an exhibition, accompanied on the harp by Miss Booth, performing their part exceedingly well, followed with delightful singing, which at once captured the audience.

Mayor Clapp read an address of welcome.

Then followed singing by officers of the Salvation Army, of Toronto, and the congregation.

Finally Miss Booth, who was dressed in the costume in which she performed her many deeds of charity in her efforts to lift the fallen, and extend aid and encouragement to the poverty-stricken, criminal classes in the great cities, commenced her remarks, and proceeded to deliver a most eloquent and soul-stirring address, depicting the squalor, want and wickedness which prevail in many of the streets and lanes of the great cities, and of the Rescue work of the Salvation Army. By dressing in rags she was enabled to reach a class who otherwise would never have learned the story of the cross. The address was listened to with rapt attention, and was interspersed at times with singing. The service was brought to a close shortly after 10 o'clock.

Territorial Newslets

Captain Grose, of East Ontario, is recruiting for India, and will sail at an early date. The captain goes possessed of a burning desire for the salvation of the heathen, and our prayers will follow him.

The Canadian Report is now on the press, and will shortly be on sale at the popular price of 10c. In addition to this being the Social Report, it will embrace every branch of Army Work, and will, without doubt, be ahead of anything hitherto published in the form of an Annual Report.

Magnificent crowds greet the C. O. P. Hand-Bell Brigade every place visited. Last week souls were brought to God in every meeting. The week's efforts resulted in 24 conversions and $130 offerings.

Brigadier Pickering informs us that the Siege has been taken up most heartily by both officers and soldiers in the Central Province, and a successful outcome is strongly accured. The P. O. is holding officers' councils at various district centres.

During the past six months the Huntsville Corps has made some decided advances. Since taking command, Captain Howell has reported eighty converts, many of whom have been enrolled as soldiers. When the P.O. last visited this corps sixty soldiers and recruits marched behind a very creditable brass band, newly formed.

The West Ontario Soul-Saving Troupe had a glorious campaign at Essex. Sixty-four sought pardon and purity, fifty per cent. of whom will become soldiers.

A good number have been added to the roll in consequence of Brigadier Pugmire's recent campaign at Picton. The Commissioner's visit has been the means of creating additional interest and sympathy with the work of the Army in that town.

The Staff Band gave a first-class musical festival at the Temple last week. A magnificent crowd enjoyed an hour and a half's program. The financial results were deeply gratifying.

HASTY WORDS.

We are told that we ought to think twice before we speak. Sometimes we are advised, if we are feeling unkindly, to count ten before we open our mouth. Yet hasty words oftentimes fly from our lips, in the moment of excited feeling; and, before we have time to think twice, or to count half of ten, the harm is done, the keen word has flashed like a dart into some gentle heart. These hasty words are spoken, too, most frequently between those who love each other. We control our speech fairly well when it is with strangers, or ordinary acquaintances, that we are speaking, but with those we love best we are less careful. We let our worry or our weariness make us irritable, and then we utter the hasty words which, five minutes afterwards, we would give all we have to recall. But such words never can be recalled. They may be forgiven, for love forgives till seventy times seven times; but the wounds, the scars, remain.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It is very important that officers do not send gifts or children to any of our Women's Social Institutions without making previous arrangements and obtaining the consent of the Matrons beforehand, as we have been put to a serious inconvenience in this way. We gladly help all who need us, but to avoid any disappointment on the part of applicants, we earnestly request officers and others to write us previously. Apply to the following addresses:—

Toronto:—Unit Col. Mrs. Read, Mrs. Jones and Albert B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Toronto.

London:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., London.

Windsor:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Windsor.

Winnipeg:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Winnipeg.

Calgary:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Calgary.

Edmonton:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Edmonton.

Regina:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Regina.

Saskatoon:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Saskatoon.

Weyburn:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Weyburn.

Yorkton:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., Yorkton.

North York:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., North York.

South York:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., South York.

East York:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., East York.

West York:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., West York.

North West:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., North West.

South West:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., South West.

East West:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., East West.

West West:—Adj. Gen. H. B. Jones, 100 Adelaide St. W., West West.

First Methodist Church, Picton, Ont.

lter Gordon, the alleged "Winnipeg murderer," arrived in Winnipeg as been identified. Gordon was a farmer and his hired hand threw them into an old well on the farm for some time, and enlisted in the mounted for South Africa. He was at at Halifax before the troopship ess Miss Stone's captors have ioneed her safely to the agents have been trying to ransom her, is not yet at liberty. It is quite a that the ransom money has en paid, and that the agents rel to have completely lost touch the brigands.

Chamber of Deputies at Paris he scene of a free fight recently on the Socialist and Catholic us. The trouble grew out of a sal to prosecute a Socialist for ut revolutionary speech.

tos-Dumont made a trial ascent airship at Monte Carlo. They, worked smoothly. The vessel y answered her helm in the left prevailing. After a tour of the r. Santos-Dumont steered his back to her shed, amidst the s of the assembled crowds.

—HOT REVIVALISTS AT OWEN SOUND.

(Special.)

—Capt. Burditt and Capt. Trick- ave just started their Owen campaign. Billiards of snow urricanes of salvation. Fifteen s for pardon and purity for the end. More to follow. Town d with announcement of Miss a visit. Expectations high, s aroused.—N. R. T.

—MILLVILLE BLAZING AHEAD.

—outs in Seven Weeks—67 Con- ts at Last Soldiers' Meeting.

ough we have not been report- tely, yet we have not been idle y means.

le God has been working in places. Belleville, too, is having nderful moving of the Holy Spirit, many have been brought from s into light, and from the of sin unto God. revival began on Sunday, and weeks from that time one d and five people sought par- the foot of Jesus, and found their personal Saviour. Among umber converted there have been men and women ranging from ve to eighty years of age. Com- on fire for God, working like treams. People say Belleville is not known such a revival for The best of all is converts are s strong in the Lord, and be full-fledged soldiers. At the diers' meeting sixty-seven con- were present. —McJimsey.

—IMMEDIATELY.

long ago in Edinburgh, a lady, as an earnest Christian worker, as a young woman whose feet had ould of hell, and who was pres- dwards to a harlot's grave. The e begged her to go back to her but she said, no, her parents not receive her. This Christian hat a mother's heart was so d down and wrote a letter to the telling her how she had met ighter, who was sorry, and to return. The next post an answer back, and on the s was written, "Immediately, ately." That was a mother's They opened the letter. Yes, s forgiven. They wanted her and they sent her money for come immediately.

ry, that is the proclamation immediately. That is what at and loving God is saying dandering sinner: "Immediately, ody."

"Yaa, Joe, I Will."

Amherst.—"Say, Bill, was you at the Army Saturday night?" "Naw, what for?" "Wal, now, you missed it! That barracks was full ter the back seat 'n' overflowin'. 'Thar was a man they called Insign Percy, and he was all right, I tell you. He had a big, shinin' brass thing (like the funnel yo pour vinegar into a molasses jar w'd) and wan milt y'd hear the band playin' through it, another milt y'd hear a man singin', another milt y'd hear three or four singin', an' a yander; then readin'—I tell ye, I wouldn't have missed it ter a dollar bill, an' it only cost me 40 cents. Thar was two folks went fort' ter get saved after she stopped. That Insign prayed, an' sang, an' spoke. So did Capt. Anderson, till I was near gold' fortit myself. Sure, Bill, thar folks goes up near every night. I b'ave I'll die, fer yer a lot happier, and when ye die ye won't feel ye've wasted yer life fer nawthin'. Would ye come w'd me, Bill?" "Yaa, Joe, I will."—Bur.

Twelve Sought Salvation.

Arnold's Cove.—The past two weeks have been times of blessing and power. At the corps and the outpost twelve sought and found salvation. Some of them did dance for joy, and conviction reared upon the hearts of many more. At one of the outposts, which has just been opened, the comrades are in earnest, and go in for God and souls with all their hearts. They have the framing of the barracks out and ready to put up, and are believing by the spring, to have it ready to hold meetings to. The soldiers are full of fire for God and souls. The past week we had an enrolment of eleven soldiers. Some of the people had never heard the Army rules, nor seen an enrolment, and they paid the greatest attention. When we finished there were several more wished that they had been enrolled. The people are starving for salvation, and we are believing for a great revival.—Lieut. A. Dart.

Lifted Heavenward.

Brandon.—We have had a visit from Staff-Capt. and Mrs. Phillips, and believe that all who met them and heard them were lifted heavenward, and inspired by their earnest addresses, both to saved and unsaved. We believe God's Spirit is working, and will give the increase if we keep the light burning.—T. T.

Five Brothers.

Burlington.—It is now a little over two weeks since we took charge here, and we find some very kind friends. We are believing that God will give us victory. Our meetings are well attended. We have just commissioned five Local Officers. Five dear brothers held up their hands for prayer during the past week. We are believing for a break in the enemy's ranks, and that souls will be saved and take their stand for Christ.—Lieut. Langley.

The P. O.'s Visit.

Campbellford.—We had a good time at the visit of our P. O., Major Turner, on the 23rd. We had a small banquet, and the Major presented the corps with a new flag, also enrolled four recruits. We enjoyed his visit very much, and hope he will soon be with us again. We are able from the proceeds of our "Big Go." to wipe out an old debt which has been standing for some time, for which we give glory to God.—Capt. and Mrs. Brin-son.

Eleven Seekers.

Dovercourt.—Since last report we have been fighting the devil but, thank God, we have come out on top, with seven in the fountain—five for sanctification and two for salvation. On Saturday and Sunday we had Adjutant Perry with us. His lantern service, entitled "A Tragic Ending," left a deep impression for good on all present. God came very near to us on Sunday, and as the Adjutant spoke the Spirit of God sent the words home with telling effect to the hearts of everyone, and we wound up the day with four more in the fountain—three for salvation and one for cleansing.—Lieut. Minnis.

Booming the War Cry.

Drayton.—We have just had a visit from Major McMillan and Staff-Capt. Rawling. The open-air meeting was fine. The Major's Bible talk inside was splendid very much, and we all say, "Come again." Sister Ferguson is booming the War Cry, and selling more on the front street than has been sold for years. We are preparing for a big band concert and social.—C. H. C.O.

A Forecast of Heaven.

Feverham.—We had a glorious time on Sunday in a meeting held at Lady Bank. Seven sought the blessing of a clean heart. It was a foretaste of heaven. Good meetings all day at Feverham. Capt. Poole gave us a visit, which was appreciated by all, and we are looking forward to having a revival. We are in for victory, and God has promised it to us.—Lieut. M. J. Langridge.

A Good Welcome.

Galt.—We have said good-bye to our St. Thomas comrades and friends, who were very kind to us during our six months' command of that corps, and are just getting settled for a term in Galt. The soldiers and friends have given us a good welcome, and made us feel at home, and with God's blessing, we shall see souls saved here. We had a good time yesterday (our first Sunday) and rejoiced over seeing souls finding a sin-purging God. (How many?—Ed.)—Capt. and Mrs. F. Burton.

Ten Captured.

Glance Bay.—Jesus still working; soldiers all on fire; very close engagement with the enemy; ten captured; many wounded; people interested; Holy Ghost working; faith high; good hold on the sinner. To God be all the glory!—J. F. Ebeary, Lieut.

A Famous Jubilee.

Hamilton, Ber.—On Wednesday a large crowd assembled to witness one of the famous jubilees, which the Hamilton corps is noted for. Adj. Graham, the energetic D.O. of Bermuda, assisted by Lieut. McLeod, had arranged a good program of solos, duets, recitations, and drills. The Hamilton brass band, under the able leadership of Bandmaster Salters, rendered some excellent selections, which met with the approval of all present, and everything went with a swing from the start to the finish. Since then they put in an appearance to the delight of all, and distributed presents to the Juniors, and a good number to the Seniors. J. S. S.M. Gronin and his helpers deserve credit for the interest manifested by them in the Junior work. To God we give the glory, praying that He shall abundantly bless Adj. Graham, who is untiring in her efforts to get souls saved.—Joe, from Nottingham.

After Sixty Years.

Helena.—Souls are being saved. The past week-end was the best yet. Open-air, indoor, attendances, kneeling, and carriages are away up. One lady, sixty years of age, after attending the Army for eleven years, gave herself to God. Young converts are all aglow with the Army fire. One young man, on Sunday afternoon, after giving himself to God, got the glory, and shook hands with everybody in the building. Major Hargrave was with us on Tuesday night, and though this was usually our soldiers' meeting night, the hall was full, and the meeting was the best the Major has had since coming to Helena. We were all delighted with his visit. We have had an expert dancer converted, also a jigger, who now booms the War Cry.—Nightingale.

One Junior, Two Seniors.

Hesperer.—On Wednesday night we were highly favored with a visit from our worthy Provincial Officer, Major McMillan, accompanied by Staff-Capt. Rawling, the Chancellor. This visit had been looked forward to with great expectation by all, and we were not disappointed. Capt. Groombridge, who is on his way to Bradford, and Lieut. Allen, en route for Berlin, were also with us. Of course, we were all glad to see them. Our Presbyterian friends kindly loaned their Sunday School room for the occasion. Owing to the extreme cold, the crowd was not as large as we expected, but God was with us with rich blessing. The Major's Bible lesson, taken from that incident in Christ's life when He was brought before Pilate, was illustrated by God's Divine searchlight, and as a blessed result one Junior sought salvation, while two others came for sanctification. A hearty welcome awaits the Major and Staff-Captain on their next visit to Hesperer. May it be soon.—Lieut. E. W. Ellis.

It Was Grand.

Kilmount.—The meetings on Sunday were times of blessing. Some newly-enrolled soldiers marched and took their place on the platform for the first time. Treas. Cameron said it was grand, just like old times. It is a good thing Bro. McWilliams has no wings, or we might have lost him. The soldiers are making this year the best yet. "Strike the iron while it is hot," is our motto.—Bangaway.

Twenty Years' Wanderings.

Larimore.—On Tuesday night we had a "When, Where, and What" meeting. The people told us when they first saw the Salvation Army, where they saw it, and what they thought of it. God was near, and His presence was felt. Souls are being converted and backsliders brought back to the fold. Last night we had two souls out for salvation, one had been a backslider for twenty years.—Meron and Nellie.

Victory at Joe Beef's.

Montreal IV.—After having been here a few weeks, we can report victory. We are having good times in our meetings on Sunday mornings. The meeting on Sunday morning was led by Ensigns Cabrit and Parsons. God is enabling us to show the men what a real Christian life should be, praying that before long we shall see many seeking salvation.—Desiga Wm. Parsons.

We are Rising.

Neepawa.—We have just had a visit from the Red-Hot Brigade; and they have been a means of blessing to the corps, spiritually and financially. Two souls sought God and found deliverance in their meetings, and one since they went away. We are rising. The devil is losing his grip. Last Sunday night left the devil's ranks and started for the Kingdom of God. Cadet Gardiner arrived a few weeks ago to assist us in the war. We are glad to have him, and together we are going in to advance the Kingdom in every way.—J. K.

Hardened Sinners.

North Head, N.B.—Capt. Smith has gone to another part of the battle field, where God is indeed blessing his labors, and we have welcomed into our midst Captain Richards and Lieut. Fraser, who have come with that zeal and determination to do their utmost for God. Already a few who were hardened sinners have given themselves to God. Since the Captain and Lieutenant arrived they have made quite an alteration in the quarters, which is now more comfortable than ever before. They have put in two stoves—one in the quarters, and a fine large one in the barracks—which, no doubt, will be highly appreciated by those who attend our meetings. We are very sorry to learn of our D. O., Ensign Williams, and his little girl, being in the hospital with fever. We earnestly pray that God may restore him quickly to the battle's front. He has the prayers and sympathy of the corps. The Christmas War Cry went like hot cakes. They were the best yet. You can depend on us doing our utmost for the advancement of His Kingdom. J. A. F.

Looking Forward.

Odesa.—The past week has been one of blessing and power, and we are looking forward to greater times in the future. We had a visit from one of the Harmonic Revivalists on Friday. One soul in the fountain, but this is only a foretaste of what we are going to have. The Harmonic Revivalists will be with us next week. The soldiers are all on fire for a good time. Watch the War Cry for the coming victories.—A. J. Ludlow, Lieut.

Large Crowds—Nine Souls.

Ottawa.—Major Turner and Adj. Creighton were welcomed at the Central Station by the officers, soldiers, and brass band of the S. A. corps, on their arrival at Ottawa on Saturday evening, Jan. 11th. As our Provincial leaders have in sight the hand struck up "Soldier, rouse thee," after which we held a rousing open-air meeting. The devil appeared in many forms, but we got the victory. Adj. Keall received a good donation for the work. At the hall we had a grand reception and red-hot salvation meeting. All day on Sunday large crowds were attracted to the barracks, and were faithfully dealt with concerning their souls' salvation, with the result that six souls were captured from the enemy. On Monday night Adj. Creighton gave some interesting bits of his experience before meeting with the S. A., which caught the audience. Major Turner read from God's Word, and brought the special meetings to a close, with three souls in the fountain.—Albert French.

Three for the Week.

Parry Sound.—One comrade, who began using tobacco when a little boy, got a glorious victory. He had a cotage meeting, and one more returned to the fold in the holiness meeting. At night another soul made a real surrender to our King, making three for the week. Hallelujah!—Howie, W.C.O.

Twenty Enrolled—Five Saved.

Peterboro.—We are rejoicing over sinners coming to God for pardon. We are having good meetings, and the Lord is giving us the victory. Sunday was a blessed day to our souls. There were forty-three on the march at night, and the holiness meeting was good. We had an enrolment of twenty comrades took their stand for God. During the prayer meeting five souls cried for mercy.—M. B.

Traders' Union.

Rat Portage.—Brigadier with us for the week-end, accompanied by his son Bert. Excellent good spirit, attendance, actions. On Thursday we had Union meeting and supper, cleared $15.—M. Collett, Ensign.

Helping the Indians.

Skagway.—Perhaps the War Cry would like to know progress of the war in the don't mean the supposed war, Americans in the Yukon, but of course, to the S. A. war, God that a number of late salvation, though, as a rule, not stay here, therefore we deprived of the help they ought to be to us. As a large number of Indians are wintering here, to do what we could to help and are giving two meetings over for their benefit, when an interpreter we are able to the Bible to them. A nun sought the Saviour. On night we had a tree for the children. Our many friends generously, and we were at over sixty little ones, a present the dark eyes opened wide beheld the tree loaded with things. "Tom's choir" (all in good service, singing some of Christmas songs. Santa, a native of Alaska, distributed gifts, after he had amused attempts to sing "God bless Coffee and sandwiches were passed, and everyone expressed great pleasure. The service was a refreshing large number gathered with many consecrations were New Year's night, an Adj. President Roosevelt, on "T was read. It was very it to everyone.—Ensign Goodie.

Filled to Overflowing.

St John's I.—On Thursday Adj. Fraser gave us part performance as a Salvationist, it being to finish next Thursday great crowds and collected Friday night, at our holiness subject was "Pure Religion came very near, and four to the cross for the clean heart. Our Friday news meetings have all been power, and many have been seek the higher Christian. On Sunday afternoon Adj. spoke earnestly, and wounded. At night he brought heavier weapons to the front on the subject, "It is a man-ounce to die." The filled to overflowing, and the was interesting all through the prayer meeting began was stamped on many faces prisoners were captured. Heaving for greater victory shall have it according to Crowds and finances are.—Cadet H. Connock.

Happy Soldiers.

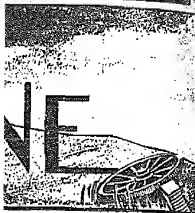

Strathroy.—We have had tionally good Sunday's load of happy soldiers drove Forest to help us. The ceased, and the soldiers talents bravely for God. ence was truly manifested going on to tell of his power.—A. Haldane.

One Prisoner Captured.

Surgeons Falls.—We are ahead, although we are few now, some of our comrades gone to other parts. V. Hand-Red Kingdom, with 21st, and we had a good time say that we are having a battle, praise the Lord, we capture of one soul from We are going in with more than ever to win now.—John Graham.

Six Stepped into the Twillingate.—Souls are vation from sin in several meetings. Six have stepped light this week. We had Sergeants' meeting on Monday and we had a victory for service. We have a crowd of Locals, who are Kingdom spirit.—Phyllis.

Trade' Union.

That Portage—Brigadier Southall with us for the week-end, accompanied by his son Bert. Excellent meetings, good spirit, attendance, and collections. On Thursday we had a Trades Union meeting and supper, when we cleared $15.—M. Collett, Ensign.

Helping the Indians.

Skagway.—Perhaps the readers of the War Cry would like to hear of the progress of the war in the north. I don't mean the supposed uprising of Americans in the Yukon, but I refer, of course, to the S. A. war. We praise God that a number of late have sought salvation, though, as a rule, they do not stay here, therefore we are deprived of the help they otherwise might be to us. As a large number of the Indians are wintering here we decided to do what we could to help them, and are giving two meetings a week over for their benefit, when, through an interpreter, we are able to explain the Bible to them. A number have sought the Saviour. On Christmas night we had a tree for the Indian children. Our many friends helped generously, and we were able to give ever sixty little ones a present. How the dark eyes opened wide when they beheld the tree loaded with pretty things. "Tom's choir" (all Indians) did good service, singing some very pretty Christmas songs. Santa Claus, a native of Alaska, distributed the presents, after he had amused all by his attempts to sing "Good old Charlie." Coffee and sandwiches were then passed, and everyone expressed themselves well pleased. The Watchnight service was a refreshing time. A large number gathered with us, and many conversions were reported. On New Year's night an address from President Roosevelt, on "The Bible," was read. It was very interesting to everyone.—Ensign Gooding.

Filled to Overflowing.

St John's I.—On Thursday night Adj. Fraser gave us part of his experience as a Salvationist, which he is going to finish next Thursday. We had great crowds and collections. On Friday night, at our holiness meeting, the subject was "Pure Religion." God came very near, and four souls came to the cross for the blessing of a clean heart. Our Friday night holiness meetings have all been times of power, and many have been brought to seek the higher Christian experience. On Sunday afternoon Adj. Fraser spoke earnestly, and many were wounded. At night he brought still heavier weapons to the front. He spoke on the subject, "It is appointed unto man-once to die." The crowd was filled to overflowing, and the meeting was interesting all through. When the prayer meeting began conviction was stamped on many faces, and six prisoners were captured. We are believing for greater victory and we shall have it according to our faith. Crowds and finances are very good.—Cadet H. Connors.

Happy Soldiers.

Strathroy.—We have had an exceptionally good Sunday's meetings. A load of happy soldiers drove over from Forest to help us. The crowds increased, and the soldiers used their talents bravely for God. God's presence was truly manifested. We are going on to tell of His power to save.—A. Haldane.

One Prisoner Captured.

Sturgeon Falls.—We are still going ahead, although we are few in number now, some of our comrades having gone to other parts. We had the Hand-Bell Runners with us on the 21st, and we had a good time. I may say that we are having a hard fight, but praying the Lord we can report the capture of one soul from the enemy. We are going in with more determination than ever to win souls for God.—John Graham.

Six Stepped into the Light.

Twillingate.—Souls are seeking salvation from sin in nearly all our meetings. Six have stepped into the light this week. We had a special Sergeant's meeting on Monday night, when all claiming victory and power for service. We have an up-to-date crowd of locals, who are seeking the Kingdom of God.—Gaston.

Four Backsliders Returned.

Wingham.—During the last two weeks we have had the joy of seeing four backsliders return to the fold. There are others under conviction, and we are looking forward to a mighty outpouring of God's Spirit. We believe that many, ere long, shall be the slain of the Lord. We had our D.O., Adj. Coombs, with us on Friday night, when conducted the meeting in a most able manner. Everyone enjoyed his visit, and hope he will come again soon. Our soldiers are in good fighting trim, and their coming has been a means of great blessing to us.—M. Gibson, Capt.

THE OLD FORTRESS CITY.

The Spiritual Specials Visit Quebec—Y. M. C. A. Hall Packed.

During the past week we have been privileged by having the spiritual specials, Major Galt and Captain Bella LeDrew, with us.

The old "Fortress" City has had such a stirring up (spiritually speaking) as it has not had for some time.

the meeting many crowded to the platform to have the privilege of shaking hands with the Major.

Our attendance for the week was far above the average, and the collections showed thirty dollars more than usual.

The Major was splendidly backed up on every occasion by Captains LeDrew and Edwards. The latter, who is in charge here, did all in his power to make the meetings a success.

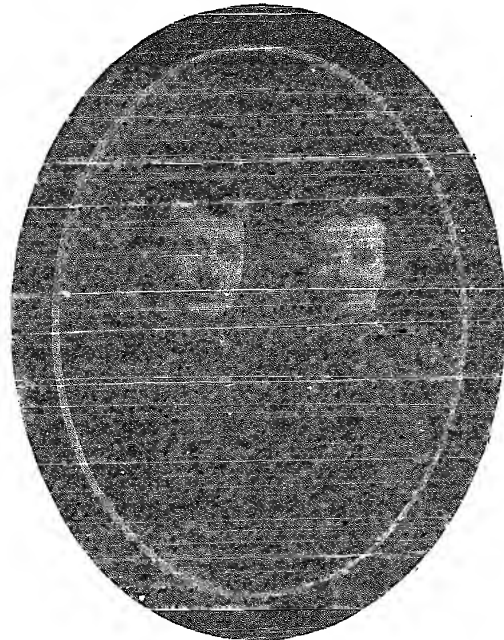

God bless the Major. She has put her whole heart into the work here, and her coming has been a means of great blessing to us.

Robt. French.

REVIVAL FIRE AT WINNIPEG.

Forty-two Souls in One Week—A Convert Brought Two Others—Gabriel Saved.

We rejoice that the power of God has been working in our midst. During the past week forty-two souls have sought and found salvation.

Adj. L. and Mrs. McLean, Glace Bay, C.B.

Major Galt's qualifications as a spiritual special are too well known to need any comment, and we in Quebec, who have been fortunate enough to hear her, will not soon forget the message of salvation which she brought us in the Master's name.

Splendid meetings all the week, but Sunday's services broke the record. Many were visibly affected by the Major's ringing denunciation of all backsliding, and her tender words of mercy to the fallen sinner.

One soldier was enrolled under the colors. The Major's meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Monday night was a fitting climax to her magnificent efforts to bring souls to Christ. The hall was crowded, there being absolutely no standing room left. The Major sang beautifully, and her address was splendid. She seemed to hold her hearers spellbound, and you might have heard a pin drop during the time she was speaking.

She took for her subject "The conversion of Zacchaeus," and clearly demonstrated to her listeners the evils of disobedience, prejudice, and the idea of hypocritical innocence, so prevalent in some places. At the conclusion of

On Friday, at the business meeting, five were brought to Christ, and on Saturday night one of the young converts was the instrument, in God's hands, of leading two others to the Saviour. On Sunday we had a great ingathering. Adj. Walsford took for his evening subject "Shout at First Sight," and the presence of God was in our meeting. The devil tried hard to keep his victims, but our God, who is strong to deliver and mighty to save," had the victory, and eighteen souls were rescued from the paths of sin, and found pardon at the foot of the cross.

The Lord continued with us, on Monday three, and the following Thursday fourteen more were led to the Lamb of God, which takes away the burden of sin from everyone that cometh unto Him.

We are also glad that Gabriel, our Jewish brother, who has been recently converted, is proving that God is not only able to save but mighty to keep, and is having victory in fighting for King Jesus.

The work has just begun, but we are looking forward to greater victories.

Sergeant Annie Lawford.

KINGSTON CAMPAIGN.

The Limestone City Stirred by the Visit of the P. O., Chancellor, and Harmonic Revivalists—25 at the Cross.

The Limestone City has been well favored with Salvationism during the last few days. A "Three Hours at the Cross" was announced for the Harmonic Revivalists the first night, which was a season of blessing from beginning to end, and four sought the blessing of a clean heart. A good crowd welcomed us the next night, and two backsliders sought God.

The New Chancellor.

On Saturday we were very pleased to be reinforced by our new Chancellor, Adj. Creighton. Old friends were pleased to see the Adjutant. "Revival Memories" was the topic of this meeting, and the Adjutant very appropriately related his experience as officer in charge of the corps thirteen years ago, when the early revival was on. Two more souls came to God at this meeting.

Interesting Reminiscences.

We eagerly looked forward to the Sunday's meetings, to be led by Major Turner, who arrived on the midnight train. A blessed time was spent at kneedrill. At the holiness meeting the Major dwelt upon the anointing of the Holy Spirit, showing how necessary it was for us to be fully equipped with power from on high. One sought the blessing of sanctification.

In the afternoon the Chancellor gave reminiscences of his early day in Kingston. A good laugh does everybody good, especially if it is opening the way for the reception of some red-hot truth. As the Adjutant recalled the time he was jailed; sprinkled by the hose of some irate hotel-keeper; his first experience at engineering, or rather manipulating the boiler that heated the barracks, when the top flew off, and the Adjutant almost lost the top of his head, together with other interesting experiences, many remembered these times to be the starting-point in their Christian experience.

At night the P.O. took for his subject, "Heretics," and gave some red-hot truths to the splendid crowd present. He spoke exceptionally well, and the crowd stayed until the finish. A well-fought prayer meeting brought nine souls to the Mercy Seat, making eleven for the day.

Special Cases.

Monday and Tuesday, being officers' councils, the meetings at night were special. The different officers taking part. On the second night the Major enrolled some recruits. It was interesting to notice that some who were being enrolled had once been soldiers thirteen to fifteen years ago in our ranks, and have now come back to spend the rest of their days. One was also an Irishman and an ex-Roman Catholic, and another was a returned volunteer from South Africa. One of the seekers on Sunday was another South African veteran, who also saw service in Dawson City.

The Major commissioned the band on the following Saturday, and presented new colors to the corps. One of the bandmen is from the city band; so you see we are gaining ground. The Harmonic Revivalists sang, prayed, and gave a hand with the twenty-five souls for salvation and sanctification.

The band turned out almost every night during the two weeks' campaign, both in the open air and inside, and rendered valuable assistance.

The Councils.

On Monday morning the officers from the District arrived, and at 2:30 p.m. the first council commenced. This was for soldiers and officers, and a very profitable time was spent. Adj. Creighton led us off in his original style, after which the Major spoke on the difference between justification and sanctification, showing how many were looking for the latter who they had never been converted. At the close four reconsecrated themselves to God.

On Tuesday morning, at 9:30, the officers alone assembled for council, and had a most blessed session.—J. R. Lusk, Pastor.

Hardened Sinners.

Head, N.B.—Capt. Smith has another part of the battle here. God is indeed blessing us, and we have welcomed amidst Captain Richards and Fraser, who have come with us and determination to do most for God. Already a few hardened sinners have given themselves to God. Since the Lieutenant arrived they have quite an alteration in their lives, which is now more common than ever before. They have no slaves—one in the quarters, one large one in the barracks—in doubt, will be highly up-lifted by those who attend our meetings. We are very sorry to learn that D. O., Ensign Williams, and a girl, being in the hospital here. We earnestly pray that we restore him quickly in the front. He has the prayers sympathetically of the corps. The War Cry went like hot. They were the best yet. You heard us on our utmost advancement of His Kingdom.

Looking Forward.

—The past week has been a blessing and power, and we look forward to greater times to come. We had a visit from the Harmonic Revivalists on the 21st, which was a great blessing to us. We are looking forward to what we are to have. The Harmonic Revivalists will be with us next week. There are all on fire for a good watch the War Cry for the victories.—A. J. Ludlow.

Large Crowds—Nine Souls.

—Major Turner and Adj. L. were welcomed at the Council by the officers, soldiers, and band of the S. A. corps, on the 21st of January. On Saturday Jan. 11th. As our Provincial came in sight the band struck up, "rouse thee," after which we went to the Windsor House, where a rousing open-air meeting was held. In many forms of the victory. Adj. Kendall gave a good donation for the work. All we had a grand reception at our good meeting. All Sunday large crowds were seen to the barracks, and were dealt with concerning their salvation, with the result that we were captured from the enemy. Monday night Adj. Creighton gave an interesting bit of his life before meeting with the which caught the audience. Fraser read from God's Word, and the special meetings to which three souls in the four corners of the city.

Three for the Week.

—Sound.—One comrade, who was sound when nine years ago at a glorious victory at our meeting, and one more returned to the fold in the holiness meeting. Another soul made a real to our King, making three for the week. Hallelujah!—Howah.

Enrolled—Five Saved.

—We are rejoicing over coming to God for pardon. Having good meetings, and is giving us the victory. As a blessed day to our souls, as a blessed day to our souls, and the inside meeting was a good enrolment, when comrades took their stand for the prayer meetings five for mercy.—M. B.

PACIFIC NOTES.

New Barracks at Butte—Helena Transformed—Billings' Baby Dedicated.

By MAJOR HARGRAVE.

The opening of the new barracks in Butte was conducted by Mrs. Hargrave and myself, and as the following report from the Miner will show, the first meeting was a magnificent success, as will be seen from a press clipping given in another column. The Saturday and Sunday campaigns were also excellent. Barracks well filled Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, while at night the crowd could not be accommodated. Six souls came forward—three for sanctification and three for salvation. Finances nearly $80. Butte is on the up-grade, and while there has not been a big rush of souls, those who have come are standing true. Several recruits have been enrolled recently, and there are more to follow very soon.

Adj. Stevens and Capt. Gain have done splendidly, and not for long time has there been such a split in the corps as now.

While I visited the remainder of the Montana corps Mrs. Hargrave remained in Butte, and commissioned the Local Officers, when one soul was saved, did two nights on "Early-Day Experiences in the Salvation Army," and on both nights the barracks was gorged. Then did last Sunday night's meeting, when six souls sought salvation, four of them volunteered. To God be all the glory.

The Transformation of Helena.

For a long time things have been very hard and disappointing, and it appeared as if nothing could be done. Since the advent of Ensign Sheard and Lieut. Smith, a few weeks ago, there has been quite a revival, and thirty-one souls have professed salvation. I have just been there and was immensely delighted with what I saw. The infusion of new blood has brought new life, and there is now every prospect of a real, live, thriving, blood-and-fire corps. No less than fourteen of the new converts were present at the meeting, and on the platform, and quite recently eight were enrolled, nine others are recruits, and some of the latter converts will come on. This wonderful work has brought about reconciliation between families that have been estranged for a long time. One woman, with three of her children, got converted, and the change was so great that a lady called at the officers' quarters to ask the officers to give them all the encouragement they could, as in the neighborhood where they lived everybody was delighted to know they were saved. Several fine young men among the captives, and they have boldly taken their stand for God and the Army.

The Junior work has also had a revival, and there are now fourteen saved Juniors, nine of whom I saw personally.

To God be all the glory for the work done.

I spent one night at Dillon, where we had a good time, and Capt. Pippert reported four souls for the week-end.

Great Falls was also visited; good crowd, but no one yielded. Here, again, there are a few who are taking their stand, and while souls-saving is hard, God is saving a few. Adj. Yerex has been seriously handicapped through sickness, but is now much better, and full of faith for greater things.

Had a good time at Billings, magnificent crowd. Bro. and Sister Johnson's baby was dedicated to God and the Army, beneath the blood-and-fire. A social had been arranged, so there was not very much opportunity for souls being saved.

Spent Saturday and Sunday at Livingston. Things were against us, as far as crowds were concerned, but we had a good time, and the soldiers were blessed. There is a great improvement in the corps all round.

Mrs. Hargrave and myself did Missions on the Monday night and had a good meeting. A splendid crowd. No one was moved, however, but judging from what we felt and saw, there should have been several cases.

Montana is on the up-grade. The spirit of the corps is excellent, and the signs of the times are encouraging.

Passing through Helena, on my way home, the boys met me and reported four souls for the week-end, one an old lady of 75.

Adj. McRae was with us at Butte, and took an active part in the campaign. It is reported that last Sunday night he acted as though he was in Newfoundland, after a good soul-saving day.—R. Hargrave.

BUTTE'S NEW BARRACKS.

Major and Mrs. Hargrave Conduct the Opening Services.

The Army barracks at this place has recently been removed from South Main to East Park street, the change being made on account of the latter place being a better locality, as well as a more convenient point for people who attend the Army meetings.

At the solicitation of Adjutant Stevens, Major and Mrs. Hargrave, of Spokane, were present at the opening and dedication of the new barracks. The event having been previously advertised, the hall was filled with Butte's representative citizens. Those who came the first night came the next, and so on until the end of the campaign, eleven of the number setting gloriously saved.

Owing to business matters, the Major could not remain during the entire time the crusade had been inaugurated, but, happily, left Mrs. Hargrave as his representative, who continued the meetings throughout the week, being rewarded, on the last night of her ministrations, by seeing six souls in the mountain. Mrs. Hargrave lectured three evenings on "The Early Reminiscences of the Army," her lectures being no less entertaining than they were eloquent and instructive. She has been a Salvationist for twenty-three years, a period sufficiently long for her to have seen many of the Army's evolutions. The speaker presented her argument in a charming way, the audience following her step by step until she told how herself, father and mother had been attacked and assaulted by ruffians, the mother receiving injuries from which she died. At this point the audience was visibly affected, and strong men and women broke down and wept like children. What a sad spectacle it must have been for a band of ruffians to attack and beat inoffensive people, simply because they were Christians. It is gratifying to know, however, that this prejudice is nearly, if not altogether, overcome, and that hereafter we will not hear of any more such diabolical acts of cowardice, tyranny and oppression.

Major and Mrs. Hargrave's visit to Butte has been productive of much good, not only from a spiritual standpoint, but in consequence of awakening renewed interest in the Army's work. Come again, Major, and bring Mrs. Hargrave with you.

John McDonald.

SOUL-SAVING TROUPE.

Successful Campaign at Windsor—24 at the Mercy-Seat.

Here we found another newly-married couple, Ensign and Mrs. Hodduloff, who treated us very kindly indeed, and did all they could to help us in the revival. Windsor has some real good warriors of the Cross, some who have been fighting for God a number of years. The devil, of course, did his best to hold his prisoners, but, thanks be unto God, He gave liberty to a number of captives. Hallelujah! God is a very present help in time of need, and truly we felt our need of His Spirit. We prayed, believed, and worked for souls, and had the joy of seeing fifteen Seniors seek salvation, also eight Seniors and one Junior come for sanctification. Nine were enrolled as soldiers. May they be true to the end.

The crowd was very good on the last night of our meetings, although there were other attractions in the city. Forty-four soldiers attended the open-air. Ensign and Mrs. Lavin, of Buxey, were over, with a number of soldiers and converts. I understand that there were seven risks, all told. We were very glad to see the young converts doing so well. Brother Ravling, who is at present Treasurer of Essex Corps, gave his testimony. He was saved about sixteen years ago at Windsor, and was formerly called "Whiskey Bill." God can save drunkards and all kinds of sinners. Adj. Kenway, the poor man's friend, was also with us one night. The adjutant is quite lively, and a lover of souls. We had a meeting with the Juniors, of whom there are quite a number saved here. Sergt-Major Mrs. Baillentine is very much interested in the little lambs. The comrades who looked after our temporal needs were: Brother and Sister Austin and Cook, Boxall and Lard. May God bless them, and all the comrades and friends of Windsor.—W. Orchard, Adjutant.

OVER JORDAN.

MEET ME IN HEAVEN.

Arruptor.—On Thursday, Jan. 23rd, our beloved Sister, Mrs. Crook (ex-Lieut. Langford) passed peacefully away to be with Jesus.

During the last night she spent on earth she asked Lieut. Bryan to sing, "There are angels hovering round," and a little later she said, "Only a few more hours and I will be with Jesus."

On with her weak and dying voice she tried to sing "I'm going home to die no more."

We praise God for her beautiful and triumphant death. Her last words to her husband were, "Meet me in heaven." Our prayers and sympathy are with the bereaved husband.—Capt. M. E. Liddell.

TRIUMPHANT IN DEATH.

St. Stephen.—At his home, in Calais, on Jan. 18th, Bro. Amariah Giddon, aged 62 years and 10 months, passed peacefully away. Bro. Giddon had been a soldier in the American Civil War, and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. He was converted about nine years ago through the instrumentality of the Salvation Army, whose officers and soldiers visited him persistently, and finally succeeded in persuading him to attend the meetings. He came to the Mercy Seat at a meeting in St. Stephen, led by Ensign Andrews and Lieut. (now Ensign) Piercy. Shortly after he was enrolled as a soldier of the St. Stephen corps, where he remained a faithful, true soldier and consistent Christian until the day of his death.

He had been confined to his bed since last July, but bore his long and painful illness with patience and Christian fortitude. The writer, in visiting him with the officers and other comrades, always received a blessing from him. His perfect faith and cheerfulness were truly wonderful. His last words on earth with his hands clasped in those of his wife were, "Blessed Jesus! Blessed Jesus! Truly for him 'to live was Christ, and to die was gain'."

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on January 20th. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ogier (Methodist) assisted by the officers and comrades of St. Stephen and Calais corps. A loving wife and seven children are left to mourn their loss. They have the prayers and heart-felt sympathy of every comrade.

The memorial service was conducted by Capt. Martin and Lieut. McDonald. George Blakey, Mother McLean, Bro. Davis, and others spoke very feelingly of the life and death of our departed brother, and the service was very impressive.—J. H. W.

SISTER SMITH GONE HOME.

Hannah.—Death has again visited our ranks, and taken away our comrade, Emily Smith.

In March, 1901, our sister became ill, and was taken to the doctor, who said she was in the first stages of consumption. She grew weaker and weaker, and no medical aid appeared to be beneficial. A month ago she became worse, scarcely knowing any one who came to see her. She was visited, dealt with spiritually, and said she was trusting in Jesus. A few days after we visited her again, and found her with a bright experience. After this time we never had the privilege of seeing her, on account of the house being under quarantine.

The night she died she called for her sister, Mrs. Higgins, to stay with her. She requested to be allowed to get out of bed to say her prayers on her knees, and after some persuasion her sister acceded to her request and took her hand, but she needed very little support. She knelt down and prayed for everyone in the family, also everyone in the neighborhood. This was the turning-point in her sister's life. She could hold out no longer, and there and then made an open confession, and got gloriously converted. The last words of her prayer were, "God bless papa, and if I die before morning, Thy will be done. Comfort papa, and give him lots of strength to bear it."

All through our sister's sickness she was never known to murmur or complain, but bore her suffering patiently. She died on Jan. 23rd, at eleven o'clock in the evening.

We gave her an Army funeral, at which quite a large crowd gathered, and we believe a deep impression was made. Although it was a bitter cold day, many friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

We held the memorial service on Sunday. The weather was very cold, but we had a very impressive time, and Mr. and Mrs. Higgins testified to the death of our sister being the means of once more putting them on the right path. May God bless and comfort all the bereaved ones.—S. J. Glover, Capt.

FATHER DAVIDSON GONE HOME.

Brandon.—On Thursday, Jan. 9th, Father Davidson was called from our midst, and we have every assurance that he has gone to the better world.

Brother Davidson, Brandon, Man.

Our comrade had been troubled with heart disease for some time; but although he was not well in body, he always found him bright in his soul.

The Sunday before he was called home, he was with us on the platform, and gave a clear testimony to the saving and keeping power of Christ. Our comrade was a soldier of Brandon corps for fourteen years, and was always known to be faithful to the corps and to God.

The funeral service was conducted by Staff-Capt. Phillips, who little expected to be called so suddenly from to one who, only a few days before, he had become acquainted with. We were again reminded that in the midst of life we are in death. May God help us all to watch and pray, for we know not the day nor the hour when the Son of Man shall come.—T. T.

LOANS.

FRIENDS and Soldiers having money to loan are requested to loan to the Salvation Army funds. In an amount of $100 or more, you will find the additional satisfaction of helping on the work of God. Our comrade will be most grateful, the doing you a service. For further information address: Headquarters, 100, N. E. Street, Portland, Oregon.

There is a Po

TH

and Every

THE

WILL BE FIRED

FE

WEEK OF VISITATION:

TWO WEEKS OF DESP

Feb. 23, to Sun

TWO WEEKS OF ENERGE

AND YOUNG PEOP

ENLISTMENT OF 1,000

to Thursday, W

UNIVERSAL ENROLMEN

HAVE YOU FOU

LET THERE

The Siege of

WANTED—Push,

An Abundant Supply of All K
Grand Central Salvat

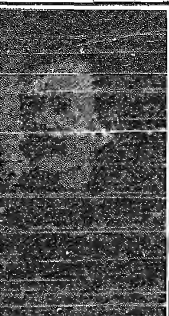

Password: "66Th

hood. She grew weaker and no medical aid appeared official. A month ago she orse, scarcely knowing any came to see her. She was leant with a mutually, and was trusting in Jesus. A few r we visited her again, and with a bright experience. e time we never had the of seeing her, on account of being under quarantine. ut she died she called for Mrs. Higgins, to stay with requested to be allowed to bed to say her prayers on and after some persuasion acceded to her request and hand, but she needed very port. She knelt down and r everyone in the family, yone in the neighborhood, the turning-point in her fe. She could hold out no d there and then made an fession, and got gloriously e. The last words of her ore, "God bless papa, and d fore morning. Thy will be mfort papa, and give him length to bear it."

ough, our sister's sickness never knows to murmur or but bore her suffering po. She died on Jan. 23rd, at 10 o'clock in the evening. Re her an Army funeral, at Re a large crowd gathered, believe a deep impression was through it was a bitter cold y friends followed the re- the cemetery. d the memorial service on The weather was very cold, ad a very impressive time, and Mrs. Higgins testified to h of our sister being the once more pulling them light path. May God bless ort all the bereaved ones— ver, Capt.

DAVIDSON GONE HOME.

On Thursday, Jan. 31st, Davidson was called from out d we have every assurance as gone to the better world.

Davidson, Brandon, Man.

ade had been troubled with chan for some time, but at e was not well in body, we and him bright in his soul. nday before he was called was with us on the platform, a clear testimony to the d keeping power of Christ. d-o was a soldier of Brandon fourteen years, and was nown to be faithful to the to God.

eral service was conducted Capt. Phillips, who little ex- be called so suddenly from to administer the last rites ho, only a few days before. ecome acquainted with. We igit reminded that in the life we are in death. May us all to watch and pray, for not the day nor the hour Son of Man shall come.—

LOANS.

and Soldiers having money to loan are requested to the Salvation Army Office. Besides the air rate of interest, you will receive a small bonus on the work of loan. Our aims are point of our facilities, thus giving you a writing information desired. Jan. 31st, 1902. Financial Secretary.

There is a Post for Every Man in and Every Man Should be at His Post.

THE SIEGE

THE FIRST SHOT

WILL BE FIRED ON RECONCILIATION SUNDAY,

FEBRUARY 16th.

WEEK OF VISITATION: Monday, Feb. 17, to Saturday, Feb. 22.

TWO WEEKS OF DESPERATE BOMBARDMENT OF SINNERS: Sunday, Feb. 23, to Sunday, March 9, inclusive.

TWO WEEKS OF ENERGETIC ADVANCE OF THE WORK AMONG CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE: Monday, March 10, to Sunday, March 23.

ENLISTMENT OF 1,000 SOLDIERS AND RECRUITS: Monday, March 24, to Thursday, March 27.

UNIVERSAL ENROLMENT OF SIEGE TROPHIES: Good Friday, March 28.

HAVE YOU FOUND YOUR PLACE IN THE SIEGE?
LET THERE BE NO PROCRASTINATION!

The Siege of 1902 will Beat all Records!

WANTED—Push, Pluck, Prayer, Power and Progressiveness.

An Abundant Supply of All Kinds of Ammunition can at All Times be Obtained at the Grand Central Salvation Arsenal, known as THE STOREHOUSE OF GOD.

Password: "The World for Christ!"

SETTLING THE WEST.

The rapidity with which settlement is going on in the West is well indicated by the records of the Dominion Lands Agencies. From those reports it would appear that for the year ending Dec. 31st, 9,100 homestead entries, representing a gain of 28,034 in population, were made, as against 7,850 entries, representing an addition of 24,568 in population, for the previous calendar year. The following comparative statement shows the respective nationalities of the homesteaders in each year:—

Nationalities.	1900.	1901.
Canadians from Ontario	1,819	1,721
Canadians from Quebec	177	231
Canadians from Nova Scotia	50	84
Canadians from New Brunswick	36	28
Canadians from Prince Edward Island	19	23
Canadians from British Columbia	19	22
Canadians from Manitoba	257	352
Canadians from N.W.T.	125	156
Persons who had previous entry	730	904
Canadians returned from the United States	170	205
Newfoundland	2	1
United States	1,681	3,258
English	669	641
Irish	104	98
Scotch	184	206
French	59	49
Belgians	24	18
Roumanians	8	47
Germans	250	245
Austro-Hungarians	1,043	969
Danes (other than Icelanders)	13	24
Icelanders	71	162
Swedo-Norwegians	101	112
Russians (other than Mennonites or Doukhobors)	90	134
Mennonites	51	61
Doukhobors	...	62
Other nationalities	8	7
Total	7,850	9,818

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

When washing white clothes, if the blue is mixed with cold water and put in the boiler while boiling, and rinsed afterwards in cold water, they will be found to be a much better color than adding the blue afterwards.

To Clean Lamp-chimneys.—Salt polishes these beautifully. First rub the chimney with paper, then put a little salt in it; and, with a soft cloth over a chimney-brush, rub it briskly. Cleanse the outside in the same manner.

Iron-holders and wipers can be easily made of old soft towels or pieces of old sheets or tablecloths. The holders should be made thick by wadding them with paper or a bit of sacking-cloth.

One of the best ways to remove old wall paper is to dip a large and clean whitewash brush in warm water and apply it evenly to the wall before scraping it with a kitchen knife. Holes in the plaster should be filled with plaster of Paris, mixed with mortar.

To Prevent Catching Cold After Washing the Head.—Take two pennyworth of borax and two pennyworth of camphor. Put both into a jug, and pour over it half a pint of boiling water. Let it stand till cold, then bottle and cork tightly till wanted. When washing the hair, pour one tablespoonful into the hot water. This cleanses and makes the hair soft, also a good color. The camphor prevents a chill from being felt.

Oranges are a most valuable fruit. Orange juice always thirst, and with few exceptions is well borne by the weakest stomach. It is also a laxative, and if taken at night or before breakfast, it will be found most beneficial.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

Shoes that have been wet and have become stiff and uncomfortable may be made soft and pliable by being thoroughly rubbed with vaseline.—February Ladies' Home Journal.

A SUCCESSFUL WAR CRY BOOMER.

How Ensign Thompson Looks Upon War Cry Selling, and How He DOES It—Not Begging—One New Customer Weekly—Booming is the Angels' Envy.

A while ago I was asked by the auditor to write a few lines for the Cry as to how I got along War Cry selling, and as I am of age I shall speak for myself.

I find War Cry selling a great pleasure. The first thing it brings me is touch with lots of people, and gives me a chance of speaking a word now and then about their soul's salvation, which otherwise I might never be able to do.

The second thing, it helps me to advertise my meetings, by stamping a small advertisement over the heading on the front page. This is a thing I have found to be very successful.

Another thing, having the joy of knowing that I'm giving the people the worth of their money, and a clean, wholesome, religious paper that's fit to be read.

In the King's Best Bed-Room; also I'm spreading salvation through this silent messenger, which preaches to the people as I go on my way rejoicing.

I remember when I first went to the Training Garrison I used to think that War Cry selling was the most degrading thing that I could do (or at least the devil told me so), but since I became a man, I've put away all childish things, and really feel that the angels in heaven would like to change places with War Cry boomers, if possible, for the sake of the privilege of preaching salvation to so many different kinds of people.

A little incident comes to my mind of one time going into a store to sell the War Cry to a regular customer. This gentleman, at this particular time, had a few of his "pans" standing around, and to my surprise, he slung his head to one side, and with a mixture of sarcasm said he didn't want the War Cry, at the same time throwing two cents on the counter, saying "Here's two cents, if you want that." I passed him back his two cents, and told him I didn't beg him for that, that I was selling the War Cry. He pulled in his two cents. Did the bystanders laugh? No, they were mixed up with queer feelings.

If I had taken those two coppers perhaps it would have left the impression that I didn't care as long as I got the money, but I am at making people feel that it is not only for the sake of the two cents that I want to sell the Cry, but also for the sake of getting religious reading into the hands of the people.

I remember at one corps, I had to walk nearly half a mile out of my road with one Cry, and never got anything extra for it in cash, only the chance of acquiring about their souls and having a word of prayer. This had its effect.

I always make it a practice of getting

One New Customer Every Week, if possible, then my stock is still kept fresh, for old customers do drop off sometimes for months, but they'll come back again after a while, and at the end of my term I have no more trouble to sell the War Cry than at the first.

There is another good thing that helps me to sell the Cry, that is to know what's in it, so that I can tell the people about it. I have had people flatly refuse to take a Cry until I have told them of some story, or song, life-sketch, etc. Perseverance thrown in and mixed up with the above cannot fail—Yours to push the Cry, G. P. Thompson, Ensign.

Not to give cheerfully when we give to God, is to take all the value out of the gift.

Remember that if the opportunities for great deeds should never come, the opportunity for good deeds is renewed for you day by day. The thing we should long for is goodness, not glory.

Boomer's Honor Roll and Competition Notes

The Eastern Star Leads the Procession—Beware of Nigger—No News of the North-West—More About the Christmas Crys and Skagway—The Champions.

Just as I predicted, Nigger has struck a winning gait. He's after the championship as sure as guns. (By the way, why guns? What are more sure than medals and taxes?) His 91 will become 101 soon, and then comes the tug-of-war between the Central and Eastern Provinces. Oh, me! Oh, my! I do wish it would happen next week!

West Ontario's charming Arab is still in the reckoning, of course. Not too late yet, Arab, to make your old-time showing.

Ensign and Mrs. G. P. Thompson and Frieda, Westville, N. S.

Can any obliging moralist give a fellow some encouraging news about the North-West? Where, oh, where can the hustlers' net be? Dear Brigadier Southall, this is intended for your eyes.

Lieut. Currell still holds the laurels. She's a hard one to beat, and Hamilton should be proud of her.

Other famous lights are: Captain Long, Sydney (250), Capt. Hawbold (225), Lieut. March (220), Capt. Long, Skagway (217), and Capt. Silzer (200).

Not heard the last of that Skagway-Roseland battle yet. Here's what Ensign Gooding, of Skagway, has to say: "The friends of Capt. Long will be pleased to hear she is in good spirits, even though her defeat seems possible. She is a proper boomer, anyway, and believes in selling the Cry for the good it does. So many tell us the War Cry is a great blessing to them."

Here's a good one! We gladly give Mrs. Cummins credit. She should be heard from more frequently than she is.

"Dear Editor, Sergt.-Major Miller, of Bracebridge thinks he did a big stroke, and so he did—50 Christmas War Crys in one sweep in Grand. Mrs. Cummins sold 40 copies of the same Cry in one store, not two copies to any one person, either. How is this for even?—W. Cummins."

Eastern Province.
101 Hustlers.
Capt. Long, Sydney 250
Capt. Hawbold, Yarmouth 225
Lieut. March, St. John I. 220

Mrs. Adj. Dowell, Halifax I. 150
Jennie McQueen, Moncton 150
Sergt. Lister, Glace Bay 150
R. Veinot, Halifax II. 150
Ensign Thompson, Westville 150
Sergt. Thistle, Halifax I. 150
P. S. M. Casbin, Halifax I. 125
Maggie McKay, Springhill 115
Capt. Smith, Truro 115
Cand. White, Eastport 110
Lieut. McDonald, St. Stephen 105
Cand. Thompson, Charlottetown 95
Sergt. Chambers, Chatham 95
Cadet Newell, Carleton 90
Capt. Payne, Somerset 85
Cadet Cavender, Campbellton 80
Cadet Clark, Fredericton 80
Mrs. Capt. Larimore, North Sydney 75
Mrs. Adj. Crichton, Charlottetown 75
Mrs. Ensign Thompson, Louisbourg 75
Adj. S. Wiggins, New Glasgow 75
Ensign Allen, Woodstock 75
Lieut. Munhough, Newcastle 70
Bro. Reid, St. John I. 70
Cand. Braco, Amherst 70
Lieut. Vandine, Sydney Mines 70
Capt. Kirk, Houlton 65
Lieut. White, Summerside 65

Capt. Graves, Clark's Harbor 55
Lieut. Holden, Halifax II. 57
Lieut. Tiller, Hantsport 57
Lieut. Harding, Stellarton 55
Cadet Legg, Liverpool 55
Capt. Forcer, Liverpool 55
S.M. Morrison, Glace Bay 51
Ensign Knight, New Glasgow 50
Sergt. Smith, St. John I. 50
P. S. M. Peckwood, St. George's 50
Ada Rowe, Fredericton 50
P. S. M. Worth, Charlottetown 50
Capt. W. Cowan, St. John 50
Ensign Knight, Chatham 50
Lieut. W. Riley, St. John I. 45
Capt. White, Sackville 45
Capt. Davis, Sussex 45
Lieut. Kenney, Sussex 45
Sergt. Burns, Somerset 45
Lieut. Weakley, Sackville 45
Capt. Geo. Hudson, St. John I. 40
Mrs. Rice, Glace Bay 40
Capt. Price, St. George's 40
Ensign Carter, Dartmouth 40
Lieut. Murhough, Newcastle 40
Lieut. Parsons, Chatham 40
Sergt. Kelley, St. George's 35
Adj. Byers, Moncton 35
Sergt. Virgil, Southampton 35
Mrs. Ensign Carter, Dartmouth 35
Lieut. Munroe, Lunenburg 35
Mrs. Adj. Wiggins, New Glasgow 35
Capt. Wyatt, Fairville 35
Sergt. C. Jones, Woodstock 35
Mrs. Young, Lunenburg 35
Mrs. Beatty, Fredericton 35
Sergt. McElwain, Dartmouth 35
Lieut. Hamilton, Fairville 35
Lieut. Haugen, Moncton 35
Sergt. Mrs. Ross, Fredericton 35
Sergt. Crow, Glace Bay 35
Sergt. Taylor, Truro 35
J. Ford, New Glasgow 35
Capt. Lamont, St. John V. 35
Lieut. Ogilvie, St. John V. 35
Lieut. Wood, Bear River 35

Capt. Leadley, Campbellton 35
Capt. Green, Bear River 35
Bro. Hollet, Hampton 35
Sergt. Dinnie, Glace Bay 35
Cand. Burrows, Yarmouth 35
Sergt. T.H. Fredericton 35
Sergt. Mrs. Lons, Fredericton 35
Sergt. Donovan, Fredericton 35
Bro. Bean, Southampton 35
John Gibbons, Southampton 35
Capt. Goodwin, Halifax IV. 35
Lieut. McKim, Halifax IV. 35
S.M. Kent, Bear River 35
Sergt. McArthur, Temple 35
Lieut. DeBaw, Halifax I. 35
Lieut. Richards, Bridgeport 35
Cand. Sharpsham, Windsor 35
Cand. McArthur, Windsor 35
Sergt. England, Chatham 35
Lieut. Fawson, Moncton 35

Central Ontario Province.
91 Hustlers.
Lieut. Currell, Hamilton I. 315
Ensign Stagers, Owen Sound 101
S.M. Bowcock, Lippincott 100
S.M. Travlas, Newmarket 90
Sergt. McArthur, Temple 85
Cand. Calvert, Meaford 85
Cand. L. Palmer, Orillia 75
Sergt. Bowman, Temple 65
Mrs. Jones, Huntsville 65
C.C. Nellie Richards, Lindsay 61
Capt. Prockets, Bracebridge 60
Lieut. Porter, Midland 50
Sergt. Mrs. Thompson, Sudbury 50
Capt. McNaney, Sudbury 50
Mrs. Capt. LeCocq, Hamilton II. 54
Capt. Crego, North Bay 54
Ensign Hanna, Collingwood 54
C.C. Edie Cornell, Lindsay 54
Bro. Moffitt, Riverside 51
Cadet Anderson, Lippincott 51
Ensign Hilde, Riverside 50
Capt. Corleah, Riverside 50
Capt. McCall, Riverside 50
Lieut. Dauberville, Yorkville 50
P. S. M. Small, St. Catharines 50
Adj. Walker, St. Catharines 50
Cadet Darch, Dundas 48
P. S. M. Stewart, Lisgar St. 42
Lieut. Weisley, Orangeville 41
Lieut. Qualto, Richmond St. 40
Sergt. Dewell, Temple 40
Capt. Stollker, Riverside 40
Capt. C. Stephens, Sturgeon Falls 37
Lieut. Jago, Sturgeon Falls 37
Mrs. Howell, Huntsville 36
Ensign Brant, Goshawa 36
Cadet Hindesley, Lippincott 36
Bro. Sherwood, Collingwood 35
Capt. Kivick, Orangeville 35
Lieut. Langridge, Orillia 31
Lieut. Richards, Temple 31
Sergt. Mrs. Bro. Parry Sound 30
Capt. Hart, Parry Sound 30
C.C. Gerow, Burk's Falls 30
Capt. Matthews, Burk's Falls 30
Mrs. Adj. Sims, Lisgar St. 30
Rose Field, Lisgar St. 30
Ensign Sherwin, Bowmanville 30
Lieut. Sheppard, Bowmanville 30
Lizzie Bradley, Temple 29
Capt. Marshall, Oshawa 28
Mrs. Ensign Hanna, Collingwood 27
S.M. Finch, Lisgar St. 27
Lieut. Porter, Fenelon Falls 26
Sergt. Adams, Temple 26
Capt. Stephens, Brampton 25
Lieut. Phillips, Brampton 25
Lieut. Graywell, Aurora 25
J. McLennan, Aurora 25
Capt. Carwardine, Chesley 25
Lieut. Lamb, Chesley 25
Capt. Pattenden, Uxbridge 25
Lieut. Huggin, Uxbridge 25
Mrs. Gills, Yorkville 25
Capt. Pynn, Dovercourt 25
Bro. J. Carr, Richmond St. 24
Father Dixon, Temple 24
Cadet Greenfield, Lippincott 23
Lonie Coy, Hamilton I. 23
S.M. Miller, Bracebridge 23
Tillie Gee, Hamilton I. 23
Lieut. Minnis, Dorchester 23
Cadet Matthews, Temple 21
Capt. Wilson, Dundas 20
Teresa Beery, Hamilton I. 20
Bro. Bobb, Bracebridge 20
Maud Rogers, Hamilton I. 20
P. S. M. Southwell, Richmond St. 20
Ensign Smith, Fenelon Falls 20
Sergt. Rogers, Fenelon Falls 20
Lieut. Marskill, Brooklin 20
C.C. Courtemanche, Norland 20
Cadet-Lieut. Williams, Kilmount 20
Capt. Wedge, Lindsay 20
Bro. Nelson, Lindsay 20
Sergt. Small, St. Catharines 20
Harry Walker, St. Catharines 20
Adj. Sims, Lisgar St. 20
S.M. Brown, Lisgar St. 20
S.M. McHenry, Lisgar St. 20
Sergt. Phillips, Lisgar St. 20

West Ontario
83 Hustlers.
Capt. Sitzer, Stratford 35
P. S. M. Hoffman, W. 35
Lieut. Murray, Brant 35
Capt. Hockin, London 35
Capt. Maier, Guelph 35
Lieut. West, Windsor 35
Mrs. Adj. McGillivray 35
Adj. Cameron, Brant 35
Mrs. Capt. Coy, Leam 35
Capt. Williams, Palm 35
Ensign Howcroft, W. 35
Lieut. Close, Goderich 35
Capt. Fyfe, Goderich 35
Capt. Carr, Sarnia 35
Capt. Dowell, Clinton 35
Bro. Auld, Wingham 35
Capt. Crawford, Simco 35
Adj. Scott, Sarnia 35
Capt. Barner, Bothw 35
Mrs. Adj. McHarg, 35
Capt. Horwood, Tilus 35
Ensign Holman, Pet 35
Capt. Rock, Paris 35
Capt. Yeomans, Wal 35
Mrs. Capt. Burton, St. 35
Mrs. Dixon, St. Thon 35
Mrs. Huntington, Rich 35
Mrs. Sec. Kerwell, I 35
Capt. Bonny, Listow 35
Fred Palmer, London 35
Mrs. Dr. Green, Ridg 35
Adj. McGillivray, L 35
Sister F. Yeo, Wind 35
Capt. White, Hespel 35
Mother Cutting, Esso 35
Lieut. G. Yeomans, S 35
Capt. Greenwood, Tu 35
S. M. Brydon, Wind 35
Capt. Kitchen, Seaf 35
Ina Groom, Blenheim 35
Nellie Langley, St. T 35
Capt. Young, Watfor 35
Capt. Bradt, Norwic 35
Sister Christian, Pet 35
Sister Bryson, Petro 35
Sister Howlett, Hesp 35
Sister Cooper, Guelph 35
Mary Wilson, Simco 35
Mrs. Ensign Stote, W 35
Mrs. Davis, Norwic 35
Faith Cooper, Guelph 35
Mrs. Ensign Jarvis, E 35
Mrs. M. Cutting, Esso 35
Mrs. Capt. Bradt, No 35
Capt. Groombridge, B 35
Lucy Horwood, Londo 35
Lieut. Crafts, Tilson 35
Capt. Dowell, Clinton 35
P. S. M. Virtue, Win 35
Mrs. Hockin, St. Th 35
Ensign Huntington, R 35
Lieut. Ellis, Hespel 35
Sister Lamb, Stratfor 35
Pearl Hardacre, Chas 35
Sister Steel, Petrol 35
S.M. Tremblin, Listow 35
Ensign Hoddinott, G 35
Lieut. Allen, Galt 35
Lieut. McCall, Berlin 35
May Perrin, Berlin 35
Capt. Harnan, Drayto 35
Sister Shepherd, Dray 35
Mrs. Capt. White, In 35
Capt. Pickle, Strath 35
Lieut. Cook, Strath 35
Sister Stiel, Petrol 35
Capt. Plant, Dresden 35
Hatched Ellis, Dresde 35
Lieut. Martin, Dresde 35
Mother Broadwell, Ki 35
S.M. Graham, Timme 35
Mrs. Musgrove, Wroxa 35

East Ontario
71 Hustlers.
Capt. Hickman, Pictou 35
S.M. Rice, Montreal I 35
Sergt. Raymo, Barre 35
P. S. M. Dunley, Ota 35
Capt. Thompson, New 35
Capt. Wilson, Trenton 35
Lieut. Grainer, Ota 35
Sergt. Rogers, Newpor 35
Lieut. Woods, St. Alb 35
Lieut. Hood, St. Alb 35
Mrs. Adj. Newman, O 35
Adj. McNamara, Kin 35
Capt. Ach. Ogdenau 35
Capt. Green, Inveron 35
Sergt. Moon, Montro 35
Sergt. Welsh, Buring 35
Capt. Pitcher, Kemps 35
Lieut. Stata, Bello 35
Adj. Moore, Peterbor 35
Sergt. Thompson, Be 35
Ensign Gammage, Mi 35
Capt. Edwards, Quebe 35
Lieut. Holliday, Quebe 35
Sergt. Moore, Newpor 35
Adj. Kendall, Ottaw 35
Sergt. Burk, Belleville 35
Mrs. Adj. Cave, Bar 35
S.M. Harbous, Ottawa 35
Capt. Crego, Ganano 35
Capt. Young, Kingsto 35

THE HYGIENE CLASS.

CHAPTER XXV.

Acidity of the Stomach.—This condition is due to germs, and the germs lie in getting rid of the germs. Germs of fermentation in the stomach produce, first alcohol, then carbonic acid, and then acetic acid. A person troubled with this form of dyspepsia should be careful to take only such articles of food as do not favor the development of germs, and thus starve them out. The worst articles are all fat foods, and sugar, and all forms of sweets, including ice-cream and cake. Boiled milk and unfermented breads are excellent foods to take. Another thing to do is to wash the germs out of the stomach by drinking freely of hot water an hour before meals. If food is put into the stomach already sour, of course fermentation will be set up immediately. It is like straining new milk into unwashed pans from which sour milk has been emptied. Some persons notice that just as soon as they eat, their stomach becomes sour. The third important thing to do is to stimulate the stomach to make more gastric juice, which is a natural antiseptic, and prevents fermentation, and also hastens absorption. The glands may be stimulated by applying hot fomentations to the stomach for half an hour immediately after the close of a meal, or easier still, by wearing a rubber bag, filled with hot water, directly over the stomach for half an hour or an hour. Heat is a natural stimulant, and there are no possible ill effects from its use in this way.

It is a very easy and common practice to correct the acidity by neutralizing it with an alkali—a little soda, for example; but the object is to cure the patient, and the patient is the stomach in this case. Sweet things are particularly apt to produce a sour stomach, while acid things, with the exception of pickles, have a tendency to sweeten it, popular belief to the contrary. Some will say that they are obliged to eat a great deal of sugar with acid fruits, in order to keep the stomach from souring; but the addition of sugar does not neutralize the acid. Chemists prove that from a chemical standpoint, sugar is as much an acid as is fruit. An acid is any substance which will combine with an alkali. Sugar will combine with lime, and make saccharate of lime. In making biscuits the housewife does not combine acid, sour milk with vinegar, but uses soda. Sugar added to acid fruit disguises the acid from the palate, but not from the stomach. No food hard to digest should be eaten by one troubled with acid dyspepsia. If so, it remains in the stomach a long time, until that organ is worn out, and gastric juice being deficient, the microbes which are present go actively to work, and set up a ferment. Too much of even the best food should be avoided. The stomach may make gastric juice enough for a moderate quantity, but not for a large quantity.

Ulcerated Stomach.—In ulceration of the stomach there is usually great pain felt when passing over some particular part of the region of the stomach, an occasional vomiting of blood, pain on swallowing hot or cold, sweet or acid foods and liquids. These are some of the most characteristic symptoms. The food for such a person should be plain. Animal foods, fats, sweets, and all coarse foods should be avoided. The diet should consist of milk, gruels, and similar foods. In some cases, it is necessary that the patient should abstain altogether from eating, for a few days, or even two or three weeks, the average being nourished in the meantime by injection into the bowels of digested foods.

Catarrh of the Stomach.—The sympoms of catarrh of the stomach are the presence of mucus, a heaviness or a feeling as if there was a load on the stomach. The stomach is often much distended, and is found on examination to occupy a much larger area than is natural. In this disease a small quantity of food produces a large quantity of gas, and thus stretches and stretches the stomach. We may consider the stomach in much the same condition as is the nose in a bad case of nasal catarrh. The introduction of food into the stomach is like taking a fresh cold in the nose, and the only thing to do is to stop eating and give the stomach a rest. Sometimes it is necessary to wash the stomach out by means of tubes of soft rubber, which are made to act as siphons—with a fountain higher than the mouth, and after rinsing it thoroughly with water, use a disinfectant solution just as in nasal catarrh. There are some cases in which the stomach has become so enormously large that a perfect recovery cannot be made. The best mode of treatment is to fast for a few days, and then begin on a meal a day, so as to give the stomach a long time to recover from the ill effects which follow eating. The linings of the stomach are covered with a tough, tenacious slime, and so digestion is largely prevented. Nutritive enemata are valuable, and it is a good plan to wash out the stomach with hot water. Milk and farinaceous foods are the best, though many are unable to take fluids on account of slow absorption. For such, dry food is better.

(To be continued.)

(First Insertion.)

3892. COX, ELIZABETH. Age 34. Left Reading, Eng., twenty years ago, for Montreal; afterwards moved to some place in Ontario. Is now married. Name of husband unknown; he is in some way connected with the musical profession. Write S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3895. BATES, BESSIE. Domestic, height 5 ft. 4 in., 17 years of age (looks much older); deep dimple in left cheek. Left Jamestown, N.D., in August, '01, and went to Fargo, N.D., where she registered in an hotel as Nellie Kline. Cousin enquires. Address S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3896. PATTERSON, LAWRENCE. Aged 19, rather tall, light hair and complexion. Also his mother, MRS. PATTERSON. Height 5 ft., dark hair, grey eyes. Left Staples, Ont., for Michigan, about six years ago. Have not been heard from since. Write S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3897. HENDERSON, JOSHUA. Age 52 years, dark brown hair and eyes, 5 ft. 6 in. Born in Athol Township, Prince Edward Co., Ont. Married a Miss Maggie Quaffie. Deceased missing thirty years. Sister Lodema enquires. Write S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

(Second Insertion.)

3898. PICKUP, JNO. W. 46 years of age, height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 180 lbs., black hair and eyes, sandy mustache left-handed. Last heard from fourteen years ago, at Mohave, Arizona. Was then a cowboy. Address S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3899. MARTIN, ANNIE. Formerly of Huntsville, Ont. Last heard of at Carman, Man., where she went two and a half years ago. Medium height, grey eyes. Left Staples, Ont., for Michigan, about six years ago. Have not been heard from since. Write S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3898. SHORT, JOSEPH. Aged 19, medium height, fair complexion, brown hair, mouth slightly upturned from lightning stroke. Left Protestant Orphan's Home, London, Ont., 10 years ago. Sister anxious. Address S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto.

3897. A M I T A G E. WALTER, JAMES, and WILLIAM. Last heard of at Winnipeg. Were going to move to North Dakota. It will be to their interest, financially, if they will write the S. A. Enquiry, Albert St., Toronto, at once.

West Ontario Province.
83 Hustlers.

Capt. Slizer, Stratford	200
P. S. M. Huttman, Woodstock	175
Lieut. Murray, Brantford	175
Capt. Hockin, London	135
Capt. Massey, Guelph	135
Lieut. West, Windsor	130
Mrs. Adit. McGillivray, London	125
Adj. Cameron, Brantford	125
Mrs. Capt. Coy. Lemington	100
Capt. Williams, Palmerston	90
Ensign Howcroft, Wallaceburg	75
Lieut. Coss, Goderich	75
Capt. Fyfe, Goderich	75
Capt. Carr, Sarnia	75
Capt. Dowell, Clinton	75
Bro. Auld, Wingham	74
Capt. Crawford, Simcoe	70
Adj. Scott, Sarnia	70
Capt. Barner, Bothwell	70
Mrs. Adit. McHarg, Chatham	65
Capt. Horwood, Tilsonburg	65
Sister Smith, Chatham	60
Ensign Helman, Petrolia	60
Capt. Kichen, Sarnia	60
Capt. Yeomans, Wallaceburg	55
Mrs. Capt. Burton, St. Thomas	55
Mrs. Dixon, St. Thomas	55
Mrs. Huntington, Ridgeway	52
Mrs. Sec. Kersel, London	50
Capt. Bonny, Listowel	45
Fred Palmer, London	45
Mrs. Dr. Green, Ridgeway	43
Adj. McGillivray, London	43
Sister F. Yeo, Windsor	40
Capt. White, Hespeler	40
Mother Cutting, Essex	40
Lieut. G. Yeomans, Seaforth	35
Capt. Greenwood, Thedford	35
M. S. Brydon, Windsor	35
Capt. Kichen, Sarnia	34
Ina Groom, Blenheim	34
Nellie Langley, St. Thomas	32
Capt. Young, Watford	31
Capt. Bradt, Norwich	30
Sister Christian, Petrolia	30
Sister Bryson, Petrolia	27
Sister Howlett, Hespeler	27
C. C. Cooper, Guelph	26
Mary Wilson, Simcoe	25
Mrs. Ensign Slote, Woodstock	25
Mrs. Davis, Petrolia	25
Fath. Cooper, Guelph	25
Mrs. Ensign Jarvis, Essex	25
Mrs. M. Cutting, Essex	25
Mrs. Capt. Bradt, Norwich	25
Capt. Groombridge, Blenheim	22
Lacy Horwood, London	20
Lieut. Crafts, Tilsonburg	20
Capt. Dowell, Clinton	20
S. M. Virtue, Windsor	20
Mrs. Hockin, St. Thomas	20
Ensign Huntington, Ridgeway	20
Lieut. Ellis, Hespeler	20
Sister Lamb, Stratford	20
Pearl Hardacre, Chatham	20
Sister Steel, Temple	20
S. M. Tremblay, Listowel	20
Ensign Hoddinott, Galt	20
Lieut. Allen, Galt	20
Den. McCall, Berlin	20
May Martin, L. L. L.	20
Capt. Harman, Drayton	20
Sister Shepherd, Drayton	20
Mrs. Capt. White, Ingersoll	20
Capt. Pickie, Strathroy	20
Lieut. Cook, Strathroy	20
Ed. Christian, Collingwood	20
C. M. Plant, Dresden	20
Michael Ellis, Dresden	20
Lieut. Martin, Dresden	20
Mother Broadwell, Kingsville	20
S. L. Graham, Thamesville	20
Bro. Musgrove, Wroxeter	20

East Ontario Province.

71 Hustlers.
Capt. Hickman, Picton	170
S. M. Rice, Montreal I.	135
Sergt. Raymo, Barre	128
P. S. M. Dudley, Ottawa	125
Capt. Thompson, Newport	90
Capt. Wilson, Trenton	90
Lieut. Graling, Ottawa	90
Sergt. Rogers, Montreal I.	90
Capt. Woods, St. Albans	85
Lieut. Hoole, St. Albans	80
Mrs. Adit. Newman, Cornwall	80
Adj. McManis, Kingston	80
Capt. Ash, Ogdonsburg	75
Capt. Green, Deseronto	75
Sergt. Moors, Montreal I.	75
Sergt. Wolsh, Burlington	75
Capt. Picheur, Belleville	75
Lieut. Stora, Belleville	65
Adj. Moore, Peterboro	65
Sergt. Thompson, Belleville	65
Ensign Gammage, Millbrook	65
Capt. Edwards, Quebec	65
Lieut. Holliday, Quebec	65
Sergt. More, Newport	65
Adj. Kendall, Ottawa	65
Sergt. Burk, Belleville	65
Mrs. Adit. Carr, Barre	65
S. M. Harbour, Ottawa	65
Capt. Greco, Gananoque	65
Capt. Young, Kingston	65

Newfoundland Province.

25 Hustlers.
Sergt. Major Ebbary, St. John's I.	75
Sergt. Mrs. Harris, St. John's I.	70
Sergt. M. Newman, Twillingate	70
Capt. Stickland, Tilt Cove	70
Cadet Diamond, St. John's I.	50
Mrs. Ensign Hearn, Bay Roberts	45
Mrs. Adit. Fraser, St. John's I.	40
Sergt. S. Manuel, St. John's I.	39
Nellie Rose, Grand Bank	35
Sergt. Evans, Hant's Harbor	32

Capt. M. James, St. John's I.	30
Sergt. M. Ridout, Tilt Cove	28
Cadet Grandy, St. John's I.	27
Sergt. H. Stowbridge, St. John's I.	26
Lieut. Ridout, St. John's I.	25
Lieut. Young, St. John's I.	25
Sergt. C. Yelman, St. John's I.	25
Sergt. Mrs. Bennett, Fortuque	25
Lieut. Ledrew, Grand Bank	25
J. S. M. Adey, Clareville	25
Cadet Mercer, St. John's I.	25
Lieut. Matthews, Bonavista	22
Lieut. Wiltshire, Harbor Grace	21
Lieut. Newbury, St. John's I.	21
Sergt. E. Payne, St. John's I.	21
Cadet Connick, St. John's I.	20
Mrs. Newman, Fortuque	20
Mrs. Ensign Cooper, Grand Bank	20
Lieut. A. Skinner, Gambo	20
P. S. M. White, Loo Cove	20
Sergt. F. Harding, Greenpond	20
Sergt. Carter, St. John's I.	20
Miss Abbot, Doting Cove	20
Thos. Harlick, Gambo	20

Pacific Province.

22 Hustlers.
Sergt. Major Preston, Spokane	175
Capt. Hurst, Victoria	142
Daisy Smith, New Whatcom	120
Mr. Verdell, Rossland	110
C. C. Robinson, Greenwood	100
Capt. Chas. Billing	94
Sister McCormick, Victoria	90
Sister Inis, New Westminster	79
Cadet Lewis, Great Falls	76
Hannah Knudson, Nelson	74
Mrs. Ensign Larder, Rossland	70
Capt. Jackson, Ferale	45
Florrie Pogue, Nelson	45
Mrs. Hooker, Spokane	40
Lieut. Rowland, Ferale	35
Sergt. McDaniel, Spokane	35
Treas. Nechitt, Helena	28
Lieut. Church, New Westminster	25
Sergt. Montensen, Dillon	25
Ensign Seaton, Nelson	25
Lieut. Malcolm, Nelson	23

The Klondike.

1 Hustler.
Capt. Long, Skagway	217

BY COMMANDANT H. H. BOOTH.

We are sure the selection of songs this week will be much appreciated. The Commandant, as a song-writer, is too well known to need any comment of ours. There may be one or two of these songs with which our songsters are not familiar; we are, therefore, giving them the benefit of the music.

All to me of life worth living.

D. Andrews.

C. G. G. G.

Death is at hand
Thy life to demand—
Make haste, now, thy Saviour to find;
No longer delay.
You're passing away,
And Satan your soul waits to bind.

Awful despair
Thy bosom to tear.
When heaven for thee has no room;
For ever shut out
In darkness and doubt,
Then hell everlasting thy doom.

Merciful Saviour, full of love;
Living to plead my cause above;
Dying that I this life might see—
O Saviour come, and dwell with me!

Chorus.
Wonderful joy! Wonderful joy!
Jesus to me is giving;
Wonderful joy! Wonderful joy!
Wonderful joy unceasing!

Fiercest of storms may o'er me roll,
Strongest temptations tempt my soul,
Yet I am safe, my Lord, with Thee;
Come, Saviour, come, and dwell with me.

Wonderful peace that Jesus gives;
Here in my heart His presence lives;
Chasing my sorrows far away,
Turning my darkness into day.

Wonderful gift that Jesus gave,
Seeking your soul from hell to save;
Listen, His voice now speaks to thee,
"Sinner, poor sinner, come to Me."

He is waiting, pleading, knocking.

D. Andrews.

C. G. G. G.

LET ME HEAR THY VOICE.

Tune.—Speak, Saviour, speak (B. J. 33).

Let me hear Thy voice now speaking.
Let me hear and I'll obey;
As before Thy cross I'm seeking.
Oh, chase my fears away.
Oh, let the light now falling Reveal my every need;
Now hear me while I'm calling.
Oh, speak, and I will heed.

Chorus.

Speak, Saviour, speak, obey Thee I will ever;
Now at Thy cross I seek from all ills a refuge to sever.

Let me hear and I will follow,
Though the path be strewn with thorns;
It is joy to share Thy sorrow.
Thou makest calm the storm;
Now my heart Thy temple making,
In Thy fulness dwell with me;
Every evil way forsaking,
Thine only I will be.

Let the blood of Christ for ever
Flood and cleanse my heart within.
That to grieve Thee I may never More stain my soul with sin.
Farewell to worldly pleasure,
Farewell to self and pride;
How wondrous is my treasure,
With Jesus at my side!

SAVIOUR, DEAR SAVIOUR, DRAW NEARER.

Tune.—Saviour, draw nearer (B. J. 33).

My mind upon Thee, Lord, is set.
My all upon Thine altar laid—
Oh, heed my prayer!
And since in singleness of aim
I part with all, Thy power to gain,
Oh, God, draw near!

Chorus.

Saviour, dear Saviour, draw nearer;
Humble in spirit I kneel at Thy cross,
Speak out Thy wishes still clearer,
And I will obey at all cost.

By every promise Thou hast made,
And by the price Thy love has paid
For my release,
I claim the power to make me whole,
And keep through every hour my soul
In perfect peace.

And now, by faith, the deed is done,
And Thou again to live hast come Within my heart;
And rising now with Thee, my Lord,
To lose the world I can afford,
For mine Thou art.

CATCHY CHORUSES.

(The numbers refer to the S. A. Song Book.)

3. The Lion of Judah.
4. I do believe it.
62. I feel like singing all the time.
57. The cross now covers my sins.
70. Trusting Thee ever.
72. Living beneath the shade of the cross.
74. Down at the Saviour's feet.
81. I believe Jesus saves.
84. Christ for me.
87. My soul is now united.
95. Washed in the blood white as snow.
93. My heart is now whiter than snow.
105. Come in, my Lord, come in.
107. I am trusting.
109. Holy Spirit, come, oh, come.

COMMISSIONER MISS BOOTH

WILL VISIT

Ottawa Sunday and Monday, February 16th and 17th
Bracebridge Sunday, March 9th
Barrie, "Miss Booth in Rags" Monday, March 10th

Coming Events

COL. AND MRS. JACOBS

assisted by
BRIGADIER PUGMIRE AND STAFF
CAPT. MANTON,
will conduct
SPECIAL SOUL-SAVING CAMPAIGN
at
YORKVILLE, Thurs., Feb. 13th, to Mon., Feb. 24th.

The Red-Hot Revivalists.

BRIGADIER PUGMIRE AND STAFF.
CAPT. MANTON
Brantford, Sat., March 1, to Mon.,
March 10.

Spiritual Specials.

MAJOR GALT

Will visit Barre, Friday, February
7, to Monday, Feb. 17; Burlington,
Wed., Feb. 19, to Wed., Feb. 26; Ft.
St. Charles, Fri., Feb. 28, to Mon.,
March 10.

Staff-Captain Burditt and Captain.
Trickey,

Will visit Riverside, Sat., Feb. 8, to Mon., Feb. 17; Hespeler, Thurs., Feb.
20, to Tues., March 4.

Central Ontario Province.

BRIGADIER PICKERING.

Owen Sound, Feb. 15, 16, 17;
Chesley, Feb. 18; Lindsay, Feb. 20;
Orangeville, Feb. 22, 23, 24; Hamilton
1, Mar. 1, 2, 3; Bracebridge, Mar. 6;
Barrie, March 10; Yorkville, March
11; Dovercourt, March 12; Huron St.
March 13; Bowmanville, March 15, 16,
17; Oshawa, March 18, 19; Lindsay,
March 22, 23, 24; Temple, March 28;
Penelon Falls, March 29, 30, 31.

HAND-BELL RINGERS.

Owen Sound, Feb. 15, 16, 17;
Chesley, Feb. 18; Markdale, Feb. 19;
Shesheron, Feb. 20; Dundalk, Feb.
21; Orangeville, Feb. 22, 23, 24;
Shelburne, Feb. 25; Alton, Feb. 26;
Hamilton 1, March 1, 2, 3; Lippincott,
March 8, 9, 10; Yorkville, March 11;
Dovercourt, March 12; Huron St.
March 13; Bowmanville, March 15,
16, 17; Oshawa, March 18, 19; Windsor,
March 20; Port Perry, March 21;
Lindsay, March 22, 23, 24; Kinmount,
March 25; Norland, March 26; Cob-cock, March 27; Kinmount, March 28;
Penelon Falls, March 29, 30, 31.

West Ontario Province.

THE WEST ONTARIO SOUL-SAVING
TROUPE

Dresden, Feb. 11 to Feb. 20; Wallace-burg, Feb. 21 to March 3; Petrolia,
March 4 to March 13; Sarnia, March 14 to March 24; Stratford, March 25 to April 3.

Pacific Province.

MAJOR HARGRAVE

New Westminster, Feb. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19;
Mount Vernon, Feb. 20; Everett, Feb.
21, 22, 23; Snohomish, Feb. 24.

East Ontario Province.

MAJOR TURNER

Will visit Cornwall, Sat., Sun., and Mon., Feb. 22, 23, 24; Morrisburg,
Tues., Feb. 25; Ogdensburg, Wed.,
Feb. 26; Prescott, Thurs., Feb. 27;
Brockville, Fri., Sat. and Sun., Feb. 28, March 1, 2; Point St. Charles, Mon. and Tues., March 3, 4; Montreal 1,
Thurs. and Fri., March 5, 7.

HARMONIC REVIVALISTS

Will visit Gananoque, Wednesday,
Feb. 12, to Thurs., Feb. 20; Brockville, Fri., Feb. 21, to Mon., March 3; Kemptville, Wed., March 5, to Mon.,
March 10.

18th Year. No.